Stylistics, Stylometry and Sentiment Analysis in German Studies Massimo Salgato, 2023-04-17 Can literature be investigated through quantitative methods Can style empathy and prestige be measured This study attempts to respond to these questions by providing results from a selection of case studies taken from German literature of the 19th through the 21st century including Goethe's late style Felix Salten and the output of contemporary writers such as Florian Meimberg's twitterature and Daniel Glattauer's e-mail novel Altogether this study shows how the interplay among literary theory stylistics sentiment analysis empirical studies and archival research can offer new answers to old questions regarding German literature and provide tools to formulate new questions and novel approaches to research Edinburgh German Yearbook 11 Helmut Schmitz, Peter Davies, 2017 New essays exploring the resurgence of the theme of romantic

The Epistolary Renaissance Maria Lschnigg, Rebekka Schuh, 2018-09-10 Since the late twentieth century letters in literature have seen a remarkable renaissance The prominence of letters in recent fiction is due in part to the rediscovery by contemporary writers of letters as an effective tool for rendering aspects of historicity liminality marginalization and the expression of subjectivity vis vis an other it is also due however to the artistically challenging inclusion of the new electronic media of communication into fiction While studies of epistolary fiction have so far concentrated on the eighteenth century and on thematic concerns this volume charts the epistolary renaissance in recent literature entering new territory by also focusing on the aesthetic implications of the epistolary mode In particular the essays in this volume illuminate the potential of the epistolary including digital forms for rendering contemporary sensitivities The volume thus offers a comprehensive assessment of letter narratives in contemporary literature Through its focus on the aesthetic and structural aspects of new epistolary fiction the inclusion of various narrative forms and the consideration of both conventional letters and their new digital kindred The Epistolary Renaissance offers novel insight into a multi faceted re new ed genre

The Sweetness of Life Paulus Hochgatterer, 2011-12-22. It is Christmas in the alpine town of Furth am See and a six year old girl is playing ludo with her grandfather. The doorbell rings and the old man goes to answer. The next time the girl sees him, he is lying with his skull broken, his face a red pulp against the white snow. From that time on, she does not speak a single word. Raffael Horn, the psychiatrist engaged to treat the silent child, reluctantly becomes involved in solving the murder along with Detective Superintendent Ludwig Kovacs. Their parallel searches sweep through the town: a young mother who believes her newborn child is the devil, a Benedictine monk who uses his iPod to drown the voices in his head, a high spending teenager who tortures cats. The psychological profile of this claustrophobic winter-held town is not reassuring, which if any of its inhabitants was the brutal night-time slayer of the suffering girl's grandfather.
