Human Dependence On Nature Human Dependence On Nature:

Human Dependence on Nature Haydn Washington, 2013 Humanity is dependent on Nature to survive yet our society largely acts as if this is not the case The energy that powers our very cells the nutrients that make up our bodies the ecosystem services that clean our water and air these are all provided by the Nature from which we have evolved and of which we are a part This book examines why we deny or ignore this dependence and what we can do differently to help solve the environmental crisis Written in an accessible and engaging style Haydn Washington provides an excellent overview of humanity's relationship with Nature The book looks at energy flow nutrient cycling ecosystem services ecosystem collapse as well as exploring our psychological and spiritual dependency on nature It also examines anthropocentrism and denial as causes of our unwillingness to respect our inherent dependence on the natural environment The book concludes by bringing these issues together and providing a framework for solutions to the environmental crisis Human Dependence on

Nature Haydn Washington, 2013-05-07 Humanity is dependent on Nature to survive yet our society largely acts as if this is not the case The energy that powers our very cells the nutrients that make up our bodies the ecosystem services that clean our water and air these are all provided by the Nature from which we have evolved and of which we are a part This book examines why we deny or ignore this dependence and what we can do differently to help solve the environmental crisis Written in an accessible and engaging style Haydn Washington provides an excellent overview of humanity's relationship with Nature The book looks at energy flow nutrient cycling ecosystem services ecosystem collapse as well as exploring our psychological and spiritual dependency on nature It also examines anthropocentrism and denial as causes of our unwillingness to respect our inherent dependence on the natural environment The book concludes by bringing these issues together and providing a framework for solutions to the environmental crisis Restoration Ecology Jelte van Andel, James Aronson, 2012-05-21 Enlarged enhanced and internationalized edition of the first restoration ecology textbook to be published with foreword by Dr Steven Whisnant of Texas A M University and Chair of the Society of Ecological Restoration Since 2006 when the first edition of this book appeared major advances have taken place in restoration science and in the practice of ecological restoration Both are now accepted as key components of the increasingly urgent search for sustainability at global national and community levels hence the phrase New Frontier in the title While the first edition focused on ecosystems and landscapes in Europe this new edition covers biomes and contexts all over the world Several new chapters deal with broad issues such as biological invasions climate change and agricultural land abandonment as they relate to restoration science and ecological restoration Case studies are included from Australia North America and the tropics This is an accessible textbook for senior undergraduate and graduate level students and early career scientists The book also provides a solid scientific background for managers volunteers and mid career professionals involved in the practice of ecological restoration Review of the first edition I suspect that this volume will find its way onto the shelves of many restoration researchers and practitioners and will be used as a key text in graduate courses where it will help fill a large void My own copy is already heavily bookmarked and will be a constant source of research ideas and lecture material Environmental Conservation Companion Website A companion website with downloadable figures is available at www.wiley.com/go/vanandel restorationecology Educating for Humanity Neil Tucker, 2025-03-11 This book explores the international landscape of educational scholarship policy and practice Tucker argues there is a fundamental aim for world education It is to educate complete human beings in all their dimensions such that they become the best persons they can be and participate fully in the human story Tucker asks What is the world of education for What is it that early childhood centers schools and local communities are meant to do for children and their learning Representing a decade of research the text examines the most common concepts of the purposes of education human nature and learning offered by scholars international authorities and pedagogies nations education organizations neuroscience early childhood educators and individual schools To educate for humanity Tucker provides a complete concept of holistic education of whole child and holistic learning for a whole world The book is an essential resource for those involved in the world of education teachers university administrators school authorities policy makers and educational organizations Parents and community members with a strong interest in the education of all children will also find much that is informative and challenging to think about Encyclopedia of Environmental Health , 2019-08-22 Encyclopedia of Environmental Health Second Edition Six Volume Set presents the newest release in this fundamental reference that updates and broadens the umbrella of environmental health especially social and environmental health for its readers There is ongoing revolution in governance policies and intervention strategies aimed at evolving changes in health disparities disease burden trans boundary transport and health hazards This new edition reflects these realities mapping new directions in the field that include how to minimize threats and develop new scientific paradigms that address emerging local national and global environmental concerns Represents a one stop resource for scientifically reliable information on environmental health Fills a critical gap with information on one of the most rapidly growing scientific fields of our time Provides comparative approaches to environmental health practice and research in different countries and regions of the world Covers issues behind specific questions and describes the best available scientific methods for environmental risk assessment Ecofeminism Greta Gaard, 1993-01-14 Drawing on the insights of ecology feminism and socialism ecofeminism s basic premise is that the ideology that authorizes oppression based on race class gender sexuality physical abilities and species is the same ideology that sanctions the oppression of nature In this collection of essays feminist scholars and activists discuss the relationships among human beings the natural environment and nonhuman animals They reject the nature culture dualism of patriarchal thought and locate animals and humans within nature The goal of these twelve articles is to contribute to the evolving dialogue among feminists ecofeminists animal liberationists deep ecologists and social ecologists in an effort to create a sustainable lifestyle for all inhabitants of the earth Among the issues addressed are the conflicts between Green politics and ecofeminism various applications of ecofeminist theory the relationship of animal liberation to ecofeminism harmful implications of the romanticized woman nature association in Western culture and cultural limitations of ecofeminism In the series Ethics and Action edited by Tom Regan Encyclopedia of the Anthropocene ,2017-11-27 Encyclopedia of the Anthropocene Five Volume Set presents a currency based global synthesis cataloguing the impact of humanity s global ecological footprint Covering a multitude of aspects related to Climate Change Biodiversity Contaminants Geological Energy and Ethics leading scientists provide foundational essays that enable researchers to define and scrutinize information ideas relationships meanings and ideas within the Anthropocene concept Questions widely debated among scientists humanists conservationists politicians and others are included providing discussion on when the Anthropocene began what to call it whether it should be considered an official geological epoch whether it can be contained in time and how it will affect future generations Although the idea that humanity has driven the planet into a new geological epoch has been around since the dawn of the 20th century the term Anthropocene was only first used by ecologist Eugene Stoermer in the 1980s and hence popularized in its current meaning by atmospheric chemist Paul Crutzen in 2000 Presents comprehensive and systematic coverage of topics related to the Anthropocene with a focus on the Geosciences and Environmental science Includes point counterpoint articles debating key aspects of the Anthropocene giving users an even handed navigation of this complex area Provides historic seminal papers and essays from leading scientists and philosophers who demonstrate changes in the Anthropocene concept over time The Philosophical Roots of the Ecological Crisis Joshtrom Isaac Kureethadam,2018-06-11 The Philosophical Roots of the Ecological Crisis Descartes and the Modern Worldview traces the conceptual sources of the present environmental degradation within the worldview of Modernity and particularly within the thought of Ren Descartes universally acclaimed as the father of modern philosophy The book demonstrates how the triple foundations of the Modern worldview in terms of an exaggerated anthropocentrism a mechanistic conception of the natural world and the metaphysical dualism between humanity and the rest of the physical world can all be largely traced back to Cartesian thought with direct ecological consequences Foundations of Civic Engagement Ralph D. Ellis,Norman J. Fischer II,James B. Sauer,2006-08-30 Foundations of Civic Engagement is a comprehensive survey and reassessment of the entire field of social and political philosophy Suitable for use as a primary text for courses on political thought this book explores the basic arguments of the most important historical and contemporary figures and offers a thematic critique and integration of these philosophies This dynamic book includes in depth discussions of Ancient Greek modern and contemporary theories of communitarianism social contract feminism classical liberal rights based approaches African American philosophy postmodernism Marxism critical theory and theories of communicative actions e g Habermas Throughout philosophical history there is a tension between social development of the political person as in personalist communitarian feminist postmodern and Continental thought and the abstract contractual principles needed for impartial justice and freedom of conscience This chasm can be bridged to some extent by combining ideal contractualism with the tools of feminist theory discourse ethics and critical theory Foundations of Civic Engagement evaluates these tensions as well as the criticisms and response to criticism for each theory in order to promote open dialogue analysis and a realistic assessment of each philosophy

Sustainable Development Michael Redclift, 2002-11-01 Argues that environmental problems need to be looked at internationally in terms of the global economic system and that the degradation of the environment is not natural but an historical process which is intrinsically linked and shaped by economic and political systems
