Human Rights in Teaching Practices Zankar, 2016-03-10 Human Rights are the basic rights which one gets being human. These are inherent rights which are received since inception. Knowing and valuing the Human Rights is the best practice to prevent the violation in any form. When an individual learns about one's rights, it builds respect for the right of others which helps in constructing more tolerant and peaceful citizens ultimately leading to peaceful civil societies. All Human Rights for All ascertains the universality, indivisibility, and interrelationship of all human rights. The fact of unchangeable nature of Human Rights is essential for human existence. Human Rights in Teaching Practices is a book for students, teacher educators, teachers as well as researchers in the field of Education and Human Rights Education who intend to know about Human Rights and how to impart them to their students. The main objective of this book is to share knowledge and skills to generate awareness and develop attitude towards Human Rights Education amongst student teachers. It provides an indepth description of concepts of Human Rights, Human Rights Education, and strategies for teaching Human Rights in B Ed course. The book is divided mainly in three parts. First part deals with concept of human rights, Human Rights Education, the policy perspective of Human Rights, the concept of human rights awareness and attitude towards human rights. This section describes the theoretical underpinnings of human rights from different approaches, Universal Declaration of Human Rights and how and where human rights are reflected in Indian Constitution. The concept of human rights Education and its policy perspectives in Indian Education system, Human Rights Education at different levels of school and at Teacher Education are described in detail from Indian Education policy perspective. Researchers at National and International level are studied with respect to human rights of different persons in the society such as children, women and other vulnerable groups. Second part deals with the analysis of various components of human rights education programme for teacher education. Following areas are included in the present module of Human Rights Education: Concept, Foundation and History of Human Rights, Gender Discrimination and Equality Rights of the Child, Secularism and Education, Environmental Protection and Human Rights, The Right to Education, Egalitarianism and Education, Protection of Human rights in India. The Human Rights Education programme for student teachers of Bachelor in Education course was developed and its effectiveness was studied. This part explains different teaching strategies for imparting Human Rights Education. The constructivist and experiential learning approaches were used to inculcate the human rights culture among student teachers, awareness about human rights and their attitude towards human rights. Third part deals with the research work and findings. Experimental research on student teachers was done and the effectiveness of the programme was tested. The Human Rights Education programme for generating awareness about Human Rights and attitude towards human rights was ascertained by considering various moderator variables. The research findings have manifold uses for school teachers, student teachers, curriculum planners in teacher education, all stakeholders of Education and human rights education so as to contribute directly or indirectly creating

Education and Training in Developmental Disabilities, 2007-03 Religions, Beliefs and Education in the European Court of Human Rights Nigel Fancourt, 2024-02-20 This book represents an exposition of judicial pedagogies as a new concept and discusses juridical educational issues in detail through an analysis of the educational claims and assumptions of judges decisions in the European Court of Human Rights ECtHR It sheds light on how within courtrooms around the world judges are increasingly being asked to decide upon issues of religion and belief in schooling whether about admissions policies curriculum planning or pupils and teachers dress and jewellery With key human rights principles at stake these proceedings are often fraught clashing with strong opinions about education and schooling Focusing on decisions made in the European Court of Human Rights ECtHR the author considers how the supranational court looks at these issues and considers the ECtHR's role within the European Education space Drawing upon research and scholarship surrounding these questions the book surveys a series of educational issues including curriculum and assessment and takes a comparative approach in the discussion of case studies to demonstrate the variety and depth of judges thinking Thus rather than considering the national or supranational legal principles and questions as jurisprudential issues typically about religion or human rights it reviews them from an educational perspective as folk theories of teaching and learning Finally it considers the implications of a theory of judicial pedagogy for the courts educational competence in deciding on these matters for education and educational policy research the European education space legal scholarship and for legal and judicial education Developing a novel and innovative approach to the pedagogies at play in a courtroom and providing fresh insights into the courts as agents of social change it will appeal to scholars and researchers working across the disciplines of education law and religious studies Resources in Education ,2000 Teaching Tolerance Magazine ,1995 Oswaal
