Power:

Divine and Human Lucinda Mosher, David Marshall, 2020-01-01 This volume of the Building Bridges Seminar Power Divine and Human Christian and Muslim Perspectives comprises pairs of essays by Christians and Muslims which introduce texts for dialogical study plus the actual text excerpts themselves This new book goes far beyond mere reporting on a dialogical seminar rather it provides guidance and materials for constructing a similar dialogical experience on a particular topic As a resource for comparative theology Power Divine and Human is unique in that it takes up a topic not usually explored in depth in Christian Muslim conversations It is written by scholars for scholars However in tone and structure it is suitable for the non specialist as well Students undergraduate and graduate religious leaders and motivated non specialists will find it readable and useful While it falls solidly in the domain of comparative theology it can also be used in courses on dialogical reading of scripture interreligious relations and political philosophy

Christian Theology in the Pluralistic World Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2019-06-20 Kärkkäinen's acclaimed five volume constructive theology abridged in one accessible volume Providing a new and unique way of doing theology in our pluralistic world Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen presents historic Christian doctrines in relation to the natural sciences and four other living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism This textbook covers all systematic topics along with a host of current issues such as violence colonialism inclusivity sociopolitical liberation environmental care and more Accessible and student friendly Christian Theology in the Pluralistic World is the ideal text for exploring a theological vision at once rooted in the Christian tradition and constructive in its engagement with the complexities of our global pluralistic world

Identity Crisis Sarah Yoon, 2015-03-17 This book provides a general overview of the identity crises BMB believer from Muslim background women in Jordan go through and reasons for it Traditionally persecution from family community or the secret police is thought to leave these women with newfound faith However even before persecution exposes their new faith many initial believers give up seeking the new truth and return to their previous phase due to a serious identity crisis This phenomenon is found to occur particularly often among female BMBs because of their unique circumstances in the religious and sociocultural contexts of Jordan Through an examination of BMB women's narratives this book explores how Muslim women form their identities and what they experience in the process of conversion

Christology in Christian-Muslim Dialogue Rev Fr Dr Robert Afayori, 2021-02-11 Understanding the religious beliefs and practices of the other raises hermeneutic questions on the extent to which the dialogical call to openness is related to commitment the meaning of religious identity and whether openness to the beliefs of the other poses a threat to one's religious identity If interreligious learning demands that the interlocutors unite their attitude of commitment and openness how does this occur without the loss of alterity This book addresses these questions within the context of Christian Muslim dialogue on Christology as an exercise in learning a new form of dialogue which leads Christians and Muslims to the discovery of common values such as prayer and submission to God peace and peaceful co-existence and solidarity with the poor and marginalised

is a record of the 2008 Building Bridges seminar an annual dialogue between leading Christian and Muslim scholars convened by the Archbishop of Canterbury Featuring the insights of internationally known Christian and Muslim scholars the essays collected here focus attention on key scriptural texts but also engage with both classical and contemporary Islamic and Christian thought Issues addressed include among others the different ways in which Christians and Muslims think of their scriptures as the Word of God the possibilities and challenges of translating scripture and the methods and conflicts involved in interpreting scripture in the past and today In his concluding reflections Archbishop Rowan Williams draws attention to a fundamental point emerging from these fascinating contributions Islam and Christianity alike give a high valuation to the conviction that God speaks to us Grasping what that does and does not mean is challenging theological work

Education, Religion, and Ethics – A Scholarly Collection Dianne Rayson, 2023-04-18 This collection draws on research in educational areas displaying best practice pedagogy theoretical and practical underpinned by philosophy empirical science and neuroscience among other disciplines It focusses especially on implications for higher education school education professional ethics and religion Higher education exploration is on the diminution of the humanities and implications for the range of knowledge needed for future citizenship The work includes a revisioning of higher education s purpose especially the changing role of the doctorate and its examination The focus on school education takes the same pedagogical lens to humanities and social sciences examining values education and religious studies Ethical issues include colonisation and decolonisation especially around the concept of land and ramifications for intercultural studies The ethics and practice of teaching about life and death issues in medical education are explored in light of research in dialogic consensus The religion section includes research on interfaith education especially concerning Islam and eco theological education especially focussed on climate change Contributors are academic colleagues or former doctoral students of Terence J Lovat University Professor Australia UK and Canada whose internationally acclaimed research straddles these areas Many of the contributors hold positions of influence in the academic or professional world while others bring their newly minted doctoral research to the content The intended readership includes academics and doctoral students across education ethics religion social studies ecology health and medicine indigenous studies and international affairs This collection published in honour of Emeritus Professor Terence Lovat provides rich insights into the scope and multidisciplinary depth of his scholarship A philosopher of education whose main work has centred on curriculum theory and values education and ethics in education Lovat s scholarship reminds us that the education of children and young people must be concerned with more than academic attainment In emphasising education as a holistic and moral endeavour one involving hearts and minds Lovat has consistently advocated for the provision of opportunities for young people to extend their horizons beyond the school environment to engage with issues in society that go beyond academic learning Professor Lovat has also made a major and longstanding contribution to the development of Studies of Religion in schools and to the theology and history of Islam and

Islamic Education In traversing Lovat's significant and remarkable contributions to education religion and ethics and the links between them this book serves as a testament to a highly esteemed scholar Associate Professor Deborah Henderson Queensland University of Technology Australia

Christian Engagement with Islam Douglas Pratt, 2017-04-24 Why did the Christian Church in the twentieth century engage in dialogue with Islam What has been the ecumenical experience What is happening now Such questions underlie Douglas Pratt's Christian Engagement with Islam Ecumenical Journeys since 1910 Pratt charts recent Christian WCC and Vatican engagement with Islam up to the early 21st century and examines the ecumenical initiatives of Africa's PROCURA Building Bridges and the German Christian Muslim Theological Forum together with responses to the 2007 Common Word letter Between them Islam and Christianity represent over half the earth's population Their history of interaction positive and negative impacts widely still today Contentious issues remain real enough yet the story and ongoing reality of contemporary Christian Muslim engagement is both exciting and encouraging

Contemporary Christian-Muslim Dialogue Douglas Pratt, 2021-02-28 This book introduces and examines the work of two significant 21st century Christian Muslim dialogue initiatives Building Bridges and the Christian Muslim Theological Forum and gives close attention to five theological themes that have been addressed in common by them An overview and analysis including inception development outputs and significance together with discussion of the select themes community scripture prophecy prayer and ethics allows for an in depth examination of significant contemporary Muslim and Christian scholarship on issues important to both faith communities The result is a challenging encounter to arguably a widespread default presumption of irredeemable mutual hostility and inevitable mutual rejection with instances of violent extremism as a consequence Demonstrating the reality that deep interreligious engagement is possible between the two faiths today this book should appeal to a wide readership including upper undergraduate and graduate teaching as well as professionals and practitioners in the field of Christian Muslim relations

Spirit and Salvation Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2016-12-09 The fourth installment in a wide and deep constructive theology for our time This fourth volume in Veli Matti Karkkainen's ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian pneumatology and soteriology in dialogue with the diverse global Christian tradition and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism

Kärkkäinen, 2020-01-28 In a world that is more religiously diverse than ever before our coworkers and neighbors may well be adherents of other faiths But how many of us really grasp the similarities and differences between the major world religions Comparative theology is one increasingly important way to bridge this gap especially for Christian leaders and professors but also for lay people and students Veli Matti Kärkkäinen introduces the nature and work of comparative theology then delves into a detailed doctrine by doctrine comparison of Christian teachings with those of historical and contemporary Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism With every doctrine he first presents a summary of consensual Christian belief and then orients the reader to the distinctive teachings of other faith traditions highlighting parallels and differences Ideal for students ministers instructors and lay people interested in interfaith dialogue Doing the Work of Comparative Theology distills the comparative theological rigor of Kärkkäinen's Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World series into an accessible and user friendly textbook Readers will not only learn basic methodology but also begin to undertake the actual work of comparative theology      Value and Vulnerability Matthew R. Petrussek, Jonathan Rothchild, 2020-06-25 Value and Vulnerability brings together scholars of many religions including Catholicism Buddhism Judaism Hinduism Eastern Orthodoxy Protestantism Islam and Humanism to identify and examine conceptions and interpretations of dignity within different religious and philosophical perspectives and their applications to contemporary issues of conflict such as gendered religious and racial violence immigration ecology and religious peacemaking Value and Vulnerability also includes response chapters that clarify and refine these interpretations from interfaith perspectives Through this volume Matthew R Petrussek and Jonathan Rothchild offer recommendations for advancing the conversation about dignity within and among traditions and for addressing urgent global issues and threats to dignity Together Petrussek Rothchild and the contributors create a comparative framework constituted by seven questions What sources justify dignity's existence nature and purpose What is the relationship between the divine and human dignity What is the relationship between dignity and the human body Is dignity vulnerable or invulnerable to moral harm Is dignity inherent or attained Is dignity universal and equal Is dignity practical Through its systematic comparative interdisciplinary and practical dimensions Value and Vulnerability fills in the gaps in contemporary theological philosophical and ethical discourses on dignity Contributors Matthew R Petrussek Jonathan Rothchild Darlene Fozard Weaver Kristin Scheible Karen B Enriquez Elliot N Dorff Daniel Nevins Christopher Key Chapple David P Gushee Aristotle Papanikolaou Zeki Saritoprak William Schweiker Hille Haker Nicholas Denysenko Terrence L is taken as axiomatic in both and also that affirming God's unity has raised complex theological questions for both. The two faiths are not identical but what divides them is not the number of gods they believe in. The latest volume of proceedings of The Building Bridges Seminar, a gathering of scholar practitioners of Islam and Christianity that meets annually for the purpose of deep study of scripture and other texts carefully selected for their pertinence to the year's chosen theme, this book begins with a retrospective on the seminar's first fifteen years and concludes with an account of deliberations and discussions among participants thereby providing insight into the model of vigorous and respectful dialogue that characterizes this initiative. Contributors include Richard Bauckham, Sidney Griffith, Christoph Schwobel, Janet Soskice, Asma Afsaruddin, Maria Dakake, Martin Nguyen, and Sajjad Rizvi. To encourage further dialogical study, the volume includes those scripture passages and other texts on which their essays comment. A unique resource for scholars, students, and professors of Christianity and Islam.

The Top Books of the Year Humanity Texts And Contexts Christian And Muslim Perspectives The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
