Side Of The World The Golden West Boys, "Injun" and "Whitey", A Story of Adventure William S. Hart,2022-10-13 Excerpt
The first fifteen years of my life were spent in the Dakota Territory The great West mothered me during the shaping of my boyhood ambitions and ideals Therefore I know by personal experience much of the actual life of our frontier days Let me relate a few unusual stories of early environment which will show why a man brought up in the West never forgets its history traditions and life While boys of my age in the East were playing baseball football and the various school games I was forced through environment to play the more primitive games of the Indian I lived on the frontier White settlers were scarce Naturally I had but a few boy companions of my own race A boy is a boy no matter what race or country therefore we played with the Indian youths In this way I learned to ride Indian style as well as with the saddle I learned to shoot accurately with rifle or six gun I learned to hunt and track with the wisdom of my red friends and I learned to play the rugged body building games of the native Americans which called for the greatest endurance and best sportsmanship In short I was a Western boy
