Land of Feast and Famine Helge Ingstad, 1992 Helge Ingstad's life in the Canadian Arctic spanned the 1920s and 1930s He describes the native companions and fellow trappers with whom he shared adventures and relates stories of numerous hunts and how he learned first hand about beaver caribou wolf and other wildlife Monthly Catalog of United States

Government Publications United States. Superintendent of Documents, 1991 How the Snake Lost its Legs Lewis I. Held, Jr, 2014-01-09 How did the zebra really get its stripes and the giraffe its long neck What is the science behind camel humps leopard spots and other animal oddities Such questions have fascinated us for centuries but the expanding field of evo devo evolutionary developmental biology is now providing for the first time a wealth of insights and answers Taking inspiration from Kipling's Just So Stories this book weaves emerging insights from evo devo into a narrative that provides startling explanations for the origin and evolution of traits across the animal kingdom Held's unique and engaging style makes this narrative both enlightening and entertaining guiding students and researchers through even complex concepts and encouraging a fuller understanding of the latest developments in the field The first five chapters cover the first bilaterally symmetric animals flies butterflies snakes and cheetahs A final chapter surveys recent results about a menagerie of other animals Architectural Record, The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William

L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Richard Wright's Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas Coffin Ed Johnson Kunta Kinte Sula Peace as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima Brer Rabbit John Henry Stackolee and the trickster Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali John Coltrane Marcus Garvey Jackie Robinson John Brown and Harriet Tubman Here too are general articles on poetry fiction and drama on autobiography slave narratives Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics Compact yet thorough this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women s clubs making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing exciting world of African American literature Bulletin ,1959 American Machinist ,1921 Textile Record of America ,1902 Airpower Pioneers John Andreas Olsen,2023-01-15 Airpower Pioneers studies twelve especially influential airmen detailing their impact on the evolution of the United States Air Force USAF Rather than focus on command in a series of air campaigns this book describes the personal qualities and careers of people who distinguished themselves first and foremost by advancing airpower theory doctrine and strategy and in certain cases by implementing significant organizational changes in the USAF structure Some held important positions during wartime but except for a few who excelled in both combat and peace those selected for inclusion in this volume made their main contributions to advancing aerospace power away from the front line as planners organizers educators and strategists The future of aerospace power requires airmen not only to push the limits in combat but also to emphasize publicly and frequently what is special and vital about airpower The distinctive characteristics of airpower speed range flexibility precision and lethality have improved with every new generation of aircraft and weapon systems The history of modern warfare is full of empirical evidence of airpower s relevance Looking ahead the main challenge for air forces all over the world is to match advances in technology with new ideas All air forces need visionary men and women whose reach exceeds their grasp who are determined to adapt to new security and defense realities rather than adhere to romanticized ideas of yesteryear and whose organizational skills ensure successful implementation of new ideas despite inevitable resistance to change Transient Airflow in Building Drainage Systems John Swaffield,2010-04-27 Giving you the first comprehensive presentation of the ground breaking research undertaken at Heriot Watt University with Research Council and industrial funding this book brings a new perspective to the design of building drainage and vent systems It provides the building services community with clear and verifiable design methods that will be robust enough to meet challenges such as climate change and water conservation population migration to the mega cities of the developing world and the consequent pressures of user concentration the rise of the prestige building and the introduction of new appliances and control strategies These all combine to make traditional codified design guidance insufficient Many assumptions in existing codes defining the entrained airflows within building drainage vent systems cannot be theoretically supported so designers concerned with these systems need analysis and simulation capabilities which are at least as reliable as those enjoyed by other building services practitioners The Method of Characteristics solution techniques which are well established in the pressure surge field are now used to provide solutions for drainage designers The material is applied to a whole range of abstract scenarios then to a series of real world applications including the forensic modelling of the SARS virus spread within Amoy Gardens in 2003 and the refurbishment of the O2 Dome Applications to specialised services including underground station drainage and highly infectious disease treatment facilities are discussed and demonstrated alongside the use of design and simulation techniques in support of product development Aimed at both professional and academic users this book serves both as a design aid and as a core text for specialist masters courses in public health and building services engineering
