HUMANISTIC PERSONOLOGY: A HUMANISTIC-ONTOLOGICAL THEORY OF THE PERSON & PERSONALITY. Applications in Therapy, Social Work, Education, Management, and Art (Theater) 2023 PAPERBACK EXPANDED EDITION ,2023-10-29 This Expanded 2023 Edition of the book entitled HUMANISTIC PERSONOLOGY A HUMANISTIC ONTOLOGICAL THEORY OF THE PERSON PERSONALITY Applications in Therapy Social Work Education Management and Art Theater completes the range of domains brought to attention and represented from the perspective of humanistic ontological orientation with new domains namely medicine politics technology science ecology and economy work project which as stated in previous editions presents an ontological humanistic theory model for the formation development functioning education and therapy counseling of the human personality person offering a philosophical ontological alternative to the prevailing contemporary psychological biological and cybernetic models in both literature and practice To this end the process of personality person formation is described as a successive and simultaneous creation and establishment of internal autonomous BEINGS onto formations These internal beings onto formations such as the organism the self the soul the ego the mind the consciousness play a dynamic ontological and functional specific role in the composition and the functioning of the personality person The personal profile the personality traits the behavior the human being as a whole are depicted as the outcomes of inner dynamic relationships and ontological confrontations among these internal beings which are energetically and antagonistically charged Through this daring project and through these innovative elements the theory model presented in an improved form also in this edition can represent a significant contribution not only to elucidating and explaining the complex processes of personality person formation development functioning and therapy but also to represent these processes including by invoking the Aristotelian and Platonic concepts of transubstantiation and body soul matter spirit dualism in relation to profound philosophical ontological and metaphysical categories such as human being human essence human nature and human condition bringing the discourse currently located mainly in the sphere of psychology in the sphere of philosophy ontology and ethics as well the formation and development process not leading from the perspective of the model adopted in the project only to the formation of personality and adaptive behavior but also to the formation in a holistic view of the person as a whole of the person as a HUMAN BEING Some of the most significant fragments ideas The essence of the humanistic ontological conception regarding the person the human personality is given by the idea that these are ontological products of some gradual and stadial processes held with the crucial contribution of the concrete contextual contingent socio human cultural and institutional factors where the person grows and lives Very important are therefore the personal human factors In our ontological humanistic model of formation beingness and functioning of the person personality of the human being we will speak therefore about characteristics properties processes principles such as onto formatization persomization and promergergence emergence and imergergence transmergergence and telegence conmergergence and sinmergergence about stages of evolution formation development establishment of the personal ontological psychological formations of the person as a whole such as of contact of acquisition accumulation of structuration centralization of constitution holistization of establishing networking and finally of ontification fulfillment and about ontological subjective humane and spiritual experiences feelings that represent substances motivational energetical sources and resorts of forming of the personality person s onto formations and spheres

A History of Psychology William Douglas Woody, Wayne Viney, 2017-03-27 A History of Psychology The Emergence of Science and Applications Sixth Edition traces the history of psychology from antiquity through the early 21st century giving students a thorough look into psychology s origins and key developments in basic and applied psychology This new edition includes extensive coverage of the proliferation of applied fields since the mid twentieth century and stronger emphases on the biological basis of psychology new statistical techniques and qualitative methodologies and emerging therapies Other areas of emphasis include the globalization of psychology the growth of interest in health psychology the resurgence of interest in motivation and the importance of ecopsychology and environmental psychology Substantially revised and updated throughout this book retains and improves its strengths from prior editions including its strong scholarly foundation and scholarship from groups too often omitted from psychological history including women people of color and scholars from outside the United States This book also aims to engage and inspire students to recognize the power of history in their own lives and studies to connect history to the present and the future and to think critically and historically For additional resources consult the Companion Website at www.routledge.com/cw/woody where instructors will find lecture slides and outlines testbanks and how to sources for teaching History and Systems of Psychology courses and students will find review a timeline review questions complete glossary and annotated links to relevant resources Existential Psychology East-West (Volume 2) Louis Hoffman, Mark Yang, Monica Mansilla, Jason Dias, Michael Moats, Trent Claypool, 2020-06-17 Existential Psychology East West Volume 2 emerged from continued dialogues on existential psychology particularly existential humanistic psychology in Southeast Asia This volume includes authors from Southeast Asia India Africa Europe and the United States including Xuefu Wang Louise Sundararajan Mark Yang Louis Hoffman Al Dueck Albert Chan Donna Rockwell Ilene Serlin Rainbow Tin Hung Ho Rochelle Suri Meili Pinto and Anthony K Nkyi The book is divided into three sections 1 Theory and Practice 2 Applications and Case Illustrations and 3 Existential Perspectives on Cultural Myths The first three chapter focus on Zhi Mian Therapy an indigenous Chinese approach to existential psychology These chapters are the most comprehensive overview of Zhi Mian Therapy in English to date Other theory chapters include a discussion of international psychology from an existential humanistic perspective the concept of Sui Wu Fu Xing men s violence against women Sunyata and the concept of savoring The second section focuses on a variety of case illustrations to illuminate the practice of existential therapy in different cultural contexts The final section expands upon existential perspectives of myths as developed in Rollo May s The Cry for Myth and Existential Psychology East West Volume 1 Seven myths from different cultural contexts are examined from an existential perspective Along with Volume 2 Existential Psychology East West Volume 2 represents a landmark contribution to the existential psychology literature Racism and Human Development Luciana Dutra-Thomé, Dóris Firmino Rabelo, Dandara Ramos, Emanuelle Freitas Góes, 2021-11-19 This book addresses the lifelong effects of racism covering its social psychological family community and health impacts The studies brought together in this contributed volume discuss experiences of discrimination prejudice and exclusion experienced by children young people adults older adults and their families the processes of socialization emotional regulation and construction of ethnic racial identities and stress producing events associated with racism This volume intends to contribute to a growing international effort to develop an antiracist agenda in developmental psychology by showcasing studies developed mainly in Brazil the country with the largest black population in the world outside of Africa Racism as an ideology that structures social relations and attributes superiority to one race over the others have developed in different ways in different countries As a response to the 2020 social and health crisis some North American developmental psychologists have started promoting initiatives to openly challenge racism This book intends to contribute to this movement by bringing together studies conducted mainly in Brazil but also in Germany and Norway that adopt a racially informed approach to different topics in developmental psychology Racism and Human Development intends to be an inspiration to students scholars and practitioners who are seeking tools and examples of studies of race and racism from a developmental perspective The establishment of an antiracist agenda in developmental psychology will never be possible without a commitment to the study of race as an indispensable social marker of human ontogeny in any society This book is another step towards racial equity and towards a developmental science that leaves no one behind Organizational Behavior

Christopher P. Neck, Jeffery D. Houghton, Emma L. Murray, 2018-11-29 Why does organizational behavior matter isn't it just common sense Organizational Behavior A Skill Building Approach helps students answer this by providing insight into OB concepts and processes through an interactive skill building approach Translating the latest research into practical applications and best practices authors Christopher P Neck Jeffery D Houghton and Emma L Murray unpack how managers can develop their managerial skills to unleash the potential of their employees The text examines how individual characteristics group dynamics and organizational factors affect performance motivation and job satisfaction providing students with a holistic understanding of OB Packed with critical thinking opportunities experiential exercises and self assessments the new Second Edition provides students with a fun hands on introduction to the fascinating world of OB

The Phenomenology of Learning and Becoming Eugene Mario DeRobertis, 2017-06-27 In this text the history of phenomenological research on learning is synthesized and brought forward into the areas of existential learning the development of enthusiasm about learning from childhood through adulthood and paradigmatic creative experience Original research findings are derived using the Giorgi method of descriptive phenomenological analysis in psychology The results structural and eidetic in nature are then integrated from a holistic developmental viewpoint that of Existential Humanistic Self Development Theory EHSDT An evolving developmental partnership between learning and creativity emerges as the proper conceptual frame for considering optimal growth and the relative maturity of situated becoming oneself i.e. the process of self cultivation The resulting perspective is supported by cutting edge trends in neuroscience and related to pedagogy and education Mental Health in Prisons Alice Mills, Kathleen Kendall, 2018-11-19 This book examines how the prison environment architecture and culture can affect mental health as well as determine both the type and delivery of mental health services It also discusses how non medical practices such as peer support and prison education programs offer the possibility of transformative practice and support By drawing on international contributions it furthermore demonstrates how mental health in prisons is affected by wider socio economic and cultural factors and how in recent years neo liberalism has abandoned criminalised and contained large numbers of the world's most marginalised and vulnerable populations

Overall this collection challenges the dominant narrative of individualism by focusing instead on the relationship between structural inequalities suffering survival and punishment Chapter 2 of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license via link springer.com
