Hunger Mountain A Field Guide To Mind And Landscape:

Hunger Mountain David Hinton, 2012-11-13 Learning to see with the eyes of the ancient Chinese sages can change your view of the universe as David Hinton demonstrates He takes us on a series of walks up Hunger Mountain a wilderness area near his home in Vermont What he sees and describes about these outings is informed by the cosmos view he s imbibed from his many years of translating Chinese poetry a way of looking at nature and our place in it and a particular way of regarding the relationship between ourselves and the universe It s a view that informs all the great Chinese poetry and art It s found in Taoism and Chinese expressions of Buddhism but it predates them by millennia going back probably to the Paleolithic Age and it s found in the structures of the Chinese language itself and in the evolution of the system of writing Each chapter takes its name and theme from a character of the Chinese alphabet whose history and development Hinton examines They originate as primitive marks very literally expressing the simplest of ideas from which they grow and develop through time to express concepts of great subtlety The poets and artists understood this and kept their focus on the emptiness that gives birth to all things as they used language and images that sprang from that emptiness We learn about this as David walks up and around Hunger Mountain making observations about the landscape his place in it and the underlying geological reality telling stories of the great poets as he goes It s the profoundest kind of nature writing and it s an exceptionally accessible entrance to an ancient Chinese view of the universe

Nature and the Environment in Contemporary Religious Contexts

Thomas Donlin-Smith, Muhammad Shafiq, 2018-06-11 This collection of essays discusses the human relationship with and responsibilities toward the natural environment from the perspective of religions and the social sciences The chapters examine a variety of conditions that have contributed to the contemporary environmental crisis including abuse of power economic greed industrialization deforestation and unplanned waste management They then discuss concepts from several different religious texts and traditions that promote environmental protection as a sacred moral duty for all humanity Religious concepts such as dharma duty toward Mother Earth tikkun Olam repair of the world khalifa people as deputies of God on earth amanah the universe as a trust in human hands and paticca samuppada dependent co arising are employed to argue that all the components of the biosphere are integral to the cosmos each piece with its own value and role in the harmony of the whole The book makes it clear that religions can become more green and play a helpful role in raising our ecological consciousness and supporting preservation of the environment into the future

Poetry of Grief, Gratitude, and Reverence

John Brehm, 2024-09-17 A new anthology from the editor of the bestselling Poetry of Impermanence Mindfulness and Joy Explorations on a journey through the darkest and brightest moments of our lives the poems gathered here are explorations of loss of thanksgiving of transformation Some show a path forward and others simply acknowledge and empathize with where we are but all are celebrations of poetry s ability to express what seemed otherwise inexpressible to touch deep inside our hearts and also pull ourselves out of our selves and into greater connection with the world around us

Includes poems by Rainer Maria Rilke Robert Frost Elizabeth Bishop Czeslaw Milosz Seamus Heaney Billy Collins Joy Harjo Danusha Lameris Ada Limon Kevin Young Arthur Sze Ellen Bass Li Young Lee Natasha Tretheway and many more The editor also includes an essay on appreciative attention and links to guided meditations for select poems offering us a chance to have an even deeper experience of reflection The Present Heart Polly Young-Eisendrath, 2014-10-07 After a chance encounter with a handsome idealistic stranger on a plane in 1969 Polly Young-Eisendrath rediscovered Ed Epstein a decade later when she least expected it After untangling themselves from their existing relationships they married in 1985 and spent the next 25 years together They were soul mates but in 2001 Ed at the vital age of 53 began to show signs of Alzheimer's disease Over the next 10 years as her husband gradually reversed his mental maturity Young-Eisendrath was faced with the question What is love The Present Heart is an insightful journey of living in the present moment In a deeply moving yet unsentimental voice Young-Eisendrath draws on her lifelong practices of Buddhism and psychoanalysis and her own unique view of love as well as a circle of profound thinkers including author Abigail Thomas psychoanalyst Nancy McWilliams and Buddhist teacher Shinzen Young A thoughtful meditation on the human experience The Present Heart shows how our most intimate relationships often the source of our greatest pain can prove to be our path to spiritual enlightenment The book offers a new perspective on how to maintain engaged reciprocal relationships with a partner parent child or friend under any and all circumstances Letters to a Writer of Color Deepa Anappara, Taymour Soomro, 2023-03-07 A vital collection of essays on the power of literature and the craft of writing from an international array of writers of color sharing the experiences cultural traditions and convictions that have shaped them and their work Electric essays that speak to the experience of writing from the periphery a guide a comfort and a call all at once Laila Lalami author of Conditional Citizens Filled with empathy and wisdom instruction and inspiration this book encourages us to reevaluate the codes and conventions that have shaped our assumptions about how fiction should be written and also challenges us to apply its lessons to both what we read and how we read Featuring Taymour Soomro on resisting rigid stories about who you are Madeleine Thien on how writing builds the room in which it can exist Amitava Kumar on why authenticity isn't a license we carry in our wallets Tahmima Anam on giving herself permission to be funny Ingrid Rojas Contreras on the bodily challenge of writing about trauma Zeyn Joukhadar on queering English and the power of refusing to translate ourselves Myriam Gurba on the empowering circle of Latina writers she works within Kiese Laymon on hearing that no one wants to read the story that you want to write Mohammed Hanif on the censorship he experienced at the hands of political authorities Deepa Anappara on writing even through conditions that impede the creation of art Plus essays from Tiphonie Yanique Xiaolu Guo Jamil Jan Kochai Vida Cruz Borja Femi Kayode Nadifa Mohamed in conversation with Leila Aboulela and Sharlene Teo The start of a more inclusive conversation about storytelling Letters to a Writer of Color will be a touchstone for aspiring and working writers and for curious readers everywhere In Search of Grace Peter Reason, 2017-10-27 To recover from ecological

disaster we humans must transform the sense of who we are in relation to the Earth In Search of Grace is the story of an ecological pilgrimage undertaken by the author in his small yacht Coral from the south of England and round the west coast of Ireland to the far north of Scotland It explores themes of pilgrimage the overall pattern of separation from the everyday venturing forth and returning home It tells of meeting wildlife visiting sacred places confronting danger expanding and deepening the experience of time of silence and of fragility

Participatory Research in More-than-Human Worlds

Michelle Bastian, Owain Jones, Niamh Moore, Emma Roe, 2016-12-01 Socio environmental crises are currently transforming the conditions for life on this planet from climate change to resource depletion biodiversity loss and long term pollutants The vast scale of these changes affecting land sea and air have prompted calls for the ecologicalisation of knowledge This book adopts a much needed more than human framework to grasp these complexities and challenges It contains multidisciplinary insights and diverse methodological approaches to question how to revise reshape and invent methods in order to work with non humans in participatory ways The book offers a framework for thinking critically about the promises and potentialities of participation from within a more than human paradigm and opens up trajectories for its future development It will be of interest to those working in the environmental humanities animal studies science and technology studies ecology and anthropology

The Four Chinese Classics, 2013-11-18 Discover 4 seminal masterworks of Chinese thought Lao Tzu's Tao Te Ching the Analects of Confucius the Chuang Tzu and the Mencius presented in one volume for the first time in nearly 2 centuries Award winning translator David Hinton offers fresh insights on the most influential texts on Taoism Zen Buddhism Chinese philosophy and more Hinton's award winning experience translating a wide range of ancient Chinese poets makes these books sing in English as never before But these new versions are not only inviting and immensely readable they also apply much needed consistency to key philosophical terms in these texts lending structural links and philosophical rigor heretofore unavailable in English Breathing new life into these classics Hinton's new translations will stand as the definitive texts for our era Perhaps the most broadly influential spiritual text in human history Lao Tzu's Tao Te Ching is the source of Taoist philosophy which eventually developed into Chan Zen Buddhism Equally influential in the social sphere Confucius Analects is the source of social wisdom in China The Chuang Tzu is the wild and wacky prose complement to the Tao Te Ching And with its philosophical storytelling the Mencius adds depth and complexity to Confucius vision

I Ching, 2015-10-13 The renowned poet and scholar of Chinese literature presents a beautiful and accessible new translation of this seminal text In a radically new translation and interpretation of the I Ching David Hinton strips this ancient Chinese masterwork of the usual apparatus and discovers a deeply poetic and philosophical text Teasing out an elegant vision of the cosmos as ever changing yet harmonious Hinton reveals the seed from which Chinese philosophy poetry and painting grew Although commonly used for divination the I Ching is also a book of poetic philosophy and Hinton's translation restores it to its original lyrical form Unlike previous translations that present arcane language paired with extensive commentary Hinton renders the original strata of the text as a fully formed work of literature that speaks to modern readers The result is full of wild imagery fables aphorisms and stories Acclaimed for the eloquence of his many translations of ancient Chinese poetry and philosophy Hinton has reinvented the I Ching as an exciting contemporary text at once primal and postmodern

Mencius David Hinton, 2015-06-01 This ancient text records the teachings of Mencius 4th c B C E the second originary sage in the Confucian tradition which has shaped Chinese civilization for over two thousand years In a culture that makes no distinction between those realms we call the heart and the mind Mencius was the great thinker of the heart and it was he who added the profound inner dimensions to the Confucian vision Given his emphasis on the heart it isn't surprising that his philosophical method is very literary in nature story and anecdote full of human drama and poetic turns of thought Indeed the text is considered a paragon of literary eloquence and style Mencius strikingly contemporary empiricism represented a complete secularization of the spiritualist concepts of governance that had dominated China for over a millenia He invested the humanist Confucian vision with its inner dimensions by recognizing that the individual is an integral part of a self-generating and harmonious cosmos He saw all the spiritual depths of that cosmology inside us and this led to a mystical faith in the inherent nobility of human beings In his chaotic and war-ravaged times he was therefore passionate in his defense of the people Indeed he advocated a virtual democracy in which a government's legitimacy depended upon the assent of the people Such is the enduring magic of the Mencian heart full of compassionate and practical concern for the human condition and yet so empty that it contains the ten thousand transformations of the entire cosmos

Earth Acupuncture Gail Reichstein Rex, 2016-02-18 Applying the principles of Chinese medicine and Native American shamanism to answer the call of the Earth and heal its polluted landscapes Explains how to build a healing relationship with the natural world by making offerings of thanks and listening to the Earth's responses Details methods of diagnosis and several types of Earth acupuncture treatment including building stone circles planting crystals and working with wooden and copper rod needles Shares the author's journey of healing a river with these methods After experiencing a powerful vision of the nuclear power plant near her home and its toxic effects on the Hudson River acupuncturist Gail Rex was inspired to help heal the river and surrounding lands but was unsure how to begin Soon after at a workshop with Cherokee wisdom teacher Venerable Dhyanis Ywahoo she discovered the answer she could treat the landscape just as she treated her patients by taking its pulses and treating the points of stagnant energy and pollution with acupuncture Tracing her journey from initial vision and pulse taking to building a stone circle to open a major energy meridian of the Hudson the author reveals how our rivers valleys and forests are capable of illness and healing just like a living being She explains simple practices for attuning with the living landscape and responding appropriately to the messages and images received from the Earth's intelligence By making offerings of thanks and asking the land's permission before every interaction Gail Rex demonstrates the power of right relationship in action Drawing upon the principles of Chinese medicine and her work with Native American shamanic traditions Rex shows how the landscape itself reveals both its imbalances and the opportunities for treatment Using a broad range of diagnostic tools including direct observation principles of feng shui listening to pulses and working with maps she demonstrates ways of identifying the master points of the surrounding landscape She then explores different methods of Earth acupuncture treatment including building stone circles planting crystals and working with wooden and copper rod needles to treat these specific points and restore energy balance Offering not only a proactive method for healing the environment Rex also reveals how to communicate with the rivers mountains trees and rocks that surround us allowing each of us to develop an authentic spiritual relationship with the living body of the Earth The Buddha Was a Psychologist

Arnold Kozak, 2021-05-07 In The Buddha Was a Psychologist A Rational Approach to Buddhist Teachings Arnold Kozak argues for a secular and psychological interpretation of the Buddha's wisdom with a particular focus on his mind model and use of metaphor Kozak closely examines the Buddha's hagiography analyzing Buddhist dharma through the contexts of neuroscience cognitive linguistics and evolutionary psychology Rewriting the Word "God" Romana Huk, 2025

Innovative poetry philosophy theology and new sciences converge in the project of rewriting the word God In Rewriting the Word God Romana Huk examines the substantive connections between innovative poetry of the last century and contemporary theology and philosophy Along the way we encounter ten poets who have without abandoning their inherited or chosen faith traditions radically rethought conceptualizations of divinity human ontology and the real From the startlingly proto phenomenological encounters with nature by Gerard Manley Hopkins to the post deconstructive pursuit of oracular speech in Fanny Howe these poets have found inspiration in a wide range of sources from ancient religious texts to modern philosophical movements But what unites them is their willingness to continually change experiment and challenge the status quo both in their religious beliefs and their poetic practice Huk shows how these poets have used their work to explore ultimate questions of life and death meaning and purpose and the relationship between humans and materiality humans and other humans which for these poets sheds light on humanity's relationship with the divine She also highlights the ways in which they have engaged with social and political issues in their poetry to speak out against injustice and oppression

Rewriting the Word God is a thought provoking and inspiring work that will challenge current perceptions of both religion and poetry from new positions at the intersection of faith art philosophy science literary theory and culture Existence

David Hinton,2016-08-09 The mystery of existence and our place in that mystery as expressed in a single Chinese landscape painting a new work of meditative philosophy by the renowned translator of the Chinese classics and author of Hunger Mountain Join David Hinton the premier modern translator of the Chinese classics as he stands before a single landscape painting discovering in it the wondrous story of existence and as part of that story the magical nature of consciousness What he coaxes from the image is nothing less than a revelation the dynamic interweaving of mind and Cosmos and the glorious dance of Absence and Presence that is the secret of that Cosmos The painting called Peaceful Distance Pavilion by Shih t ao 1642 1707 is like other paintings in that genre mostly space one tiny figure accompanied by an attendant looks out over a vast landscape of mountains and clouds But start looking into that space and with the right guidance what you end up seeing is profound David Hinton is the perfect guide He uses his knowledge of Chinese philosophy poetry art language and writing system to illuminate this painting's message which is ultimately the story of the glorious dance between nothing and everything between emptiness and existence It's an enthralling journey that can change the way you look at the world a journey for which David is a wise and eloquent guide James Reaney on the Grid Stan Dragland,2023-03-31 Set up a trellis for flowering plants to climb all over it's there but unseen supporting all that floral leaf green beauty In James Reaney on the Grid Stan Dragland examines an artist fiercely loyal to his artistic practice deploying the metaphor of the grid to explore the inherited literary patterns and archetypes underpinning works of London poet playwright and educator James Reaney With extensive references to Reaney's considerable oeuvre from early publications such as A Suit of Nettles and The Box Social to what is arguably his master work The Donnelly's and to an eclectic collection of theorists artists and contemporaries whose ideas inform and respond to Reaney's Dragland seeks to reveal not only what Reaney's work is about but also what it does In so doing he takes readers by the hand in a surprisingly personal ramble through the processes and productions of one of Southern Ontario's most influential writers Not Hearing the Wood Thrush Margaret Gibson,2018-09-12 I look about and find whatever I see unfinished Margaret Gibson writes in these powerful and moving poems which investigate a late life genesis Not Hearing the Wood Thrush grapples with the existential questions that come after experiencing a great personal
