Excerpt the town Food first said the hunter We ve come a long journey on the river and we ll test the quality of the inn It was too cool for the little terrace that adjoined the Inn of the Eagle and Monsieur Berryer had a table set for them in the great dining room which had an oaken floor oaken beams and much china and glass on shelves about the walls the whole forming an apartment in which the host took a just pride It was gayer and brighter than the inns of Albany and New York and again Robert found his spirit responding to it A fire of light wood that blazed and sparkled merrily burned in a huge stone fireplace at the end of the room and its grateful warmth entered into Robert s blood He suddenly felt a great exaltation He was glad to be there He was glad that Tayoga and Willet were with him He was glad that they had encountered dangers on their journey because they had won a triumph in overcoming them and by the very act of victory they had increased their own strength and confidence His sensitive imaginative nature easily kindled to supreme efforts thrilled with the thoughts of the great deeds they might do His pleasure in the company and the atmosphere increased Everything about him made a strong appeal
