Multicultural Curriculum Transformation in Social Studies and Civic Education Kenneth J. Fasching-Varner,Kerri J. Tobin,Norma A. Marrun,Iesha Jackson,Christine Clark,2021-07-12 This book focuses on multicultural curriculum transformation in social students and civic education subject areas The discussion of each area outlines critical considerations for multicultural curriculum transformation for the area by grade level and then by eight organizing tools including content standards relationships with and among students and their families and evaluation of student learning and teaching effectiveness The volume is designed to speak with PK 12 teachers as colleagues in the multicultural curriculum transformation work Readers are exposed to things to think about but also given curricular examples to work with or from in going about the actual concrete work of curriculum change This work supports PK 12 teachers to independently multiculturally adapt existing curriculum to create new multicultural curriculum differentiated by content areas and grade levels and by providing ample examples of what such multicultural transformed social studies and civic education curricula looks like in practice Language, Nation and Development in Southeast Asia Lee Hock Guan,2003-08-01 Language policies in Southeast Asia have been shaped by the process of nation building on the one hand and by political and economic considerations on the other The early years of nation building in Southeast Asia generated intensive language conflicts precisely because state policies privileged the idea of a monolingual nation and thus endeavoured to co opt or even do away with troublesome ethnic identities In recent years language policies are increasingly influenced by pragmatic considerations especially globalization and the awareness of a linkage between language and economic development such that Southeast Asian states in varying degrees have become less insistent on promoting monolingual nationalism This book evaluates the successes and drawbacks of language policies in Indonesia Malaysia Singapore the Philippines Thailand Vietnam and Myanmar especially the ways in which these policies have often been resisted or contested It is an invaluable primer on this linguistically complex region and a resource for scholars policy makers civil society activists and NGOs in various parts of the world facing equally challenging ethnic language issues Debates in Religious Education L. Philip Barnes,2011-07-07

What are the key debates in Religious Education teaching today Debates in Religious Education explores the major issues all RE teachers encounter in their daily professional lives It encourages critical reflection and aims to stimulate both novice and experienced teachers to think more deeply about their practice and link research and evidence to what they have observed in schools This accessible book tackles established and contemporary issues enabling you to reach informed judgements and argue your point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding Taking account of recent controversy and challenging assumptions about the place of religion in education expert contributors cover key topics such as Effective pedagogy in RE teaching Exploring thinking skills and truth claims The relationship of science and religion in the classroom The place of school worship in contemporary society The role of RE in spiritual and moral development Diversity in the RE classroom With its combination of expert opinion and fresh insight Debates in Religious Education is the ideal companion for any student or practising teacher engaged in initial training continuing professional development and Masters level study
