How to amputate a leg Nathan Mullins, 2009-09-01 I remember the advertisement to join the Army It asked for guys who were fit committed tough volunteer parachutists comfortable in the ocean and mature As a surfer that sounded like me except for the mature bit Nathan Mullins is an ex cop ex soldier ex security consultant and an Australian Aid International volunteer so he s experienced all sorts of dangerous stuff involving guns explosions surgical procedures combat sword play rioting and other potentially life threatening behaviours all over the world He has been lucky to survive some of his assignments and hijinks so he decided to share a few cautionary tales so everyone else can learn from his near misses

Distracted Maggie Jackson, 2010-05 This is an important book a harrowing documentation of our modern world s descent into fragmentation self alienation and emptiness brought on to a large extent by communication technologies that distract us dislocate us and destroy our inner lives Alan Lightman author of the bestselling Einstein s Dreams and National Book Award finalist The Diagnosis and MIT professor This fascinating book on America s collective ADD is a wake up call to all of us to take back our lives turn off the technology and focus on paying attention to what makes us human and fulfilled Rosabeth Moss Kanter Harvard Business School Professor and author of America the Principled and Confidence We have oceans of information at our disposal yet we increasingly seek knowledge in online headlines glimpsed on the run We are networked as never before but we connect with friends and family via e mail and fleeting face to face moments that are rescheduled and interrupted a dozen times Despite our wondrous technologies and scientific advances we are nurturing a culture of diffusion fragmentation and detachment In this new world something crucial is missing attention the key to recapturing our ability to connect reflect and relax the secret to coping with a mobile multitasking virtual world How did we get to the point where we keep one eye on our Blackberry and one eye on our spouse in bed We can contact millions of people worldwide so why is it hard to schedule a simple family supper Most importantly what can we do about it Distracted vividly shows how day by day our hyper mobile cyber centric interrupted lives erode our capacity for deep focus and awareness The implications for a healthy society are stark Attention is the building block of intimacy wisdom and cultural progress Jackson makes it clear that if we squander our powers of attention our technological age could ultimately slip into cultural decline And yet we are just as capable of igniting a renaissance of attention by strengthening our skills of focus and perception the keys to judgment memory morality and happiness Jackson reveals the astonishing scientific discoveries that can help us rekindle our powers of attention in a world of speed and overload She offers us a wake up call and reasons for hope Distracted is an original expos of the multifaceted nature of attention an engaging and often surprising portrait of postmodern life and a compelling roadmap for cultivating sustained focus and nurturing a more enriched and literate society More than ever we cannot afford to let distraction become the marker of our time Maggie Jackson New York NY is an award winning author and journalist who writes the popular Balancing Acts column in the Boston Globe Her work also has appeared in The New York Times and on National Public Radio among other national publications Her acclaimed first book What's Happening to Home Balancing Work Life and Refuge in the Information Age examined the loss of home as a refuge After War Zoë H. Wool, 2015-11-05 In After War Zoë H Wool explores how the American soldiers most severely injured in the Iraq and Afghanistan wars struggle to build some kind of ordinary life while recovering at Walter Reed Army Medical Center from grievous injuries like lost limbs and traumatic brain injury Between 2007 and 2008 Wool spent time with many of these mostly male soldiers and their families and loved ones in an effort to understand what it's like to be blown up and then pulled toward an ideal and ordinary civilian life in a place where the possibilities of such a life are called into question Contextualizing these soldiers within a broader political and moral framework Wool considers the soldier body as a historically politically and morally laden national icon of normative masculinity She shows how injury disability and the reality of soldiers' experiences and lives unsettle this icon and disrupt the all too common narrative of the heroic wounded veteran as the embodiment of patriotic self sacrifice For these soldiers the uncanny ordinariness of seemingly extraordinary everyday circumstances and practices at Walter Reed create a reality that will never be normal Communication Arts, 2002 Nurse! Giles, 1975 For a country that has only twice come under fire on its own soil it is an odd fact that we have happily volunteered for armed service in other people's wars Nathan Mullins author of How to Amputate a Leg was such a volunteer Keep Your Head Down Nathan Mullins, 2011 For a country that has only twice come under fire on its own soil it is an odd fact that we have happily volunteered for armed service in other people's wars Nathan Mullins author of How to Amputate a Leg was such a volunteer
