Luis Buñuel Jo Evans, Breixo Viejo, 2019-10-31 Luis Buñuel A Life in Letters provides access for the first time to an annotated English language version of around 750 of the most important and most widely relevant of these letters Buñuel 1900 1983 came to international attention with his first films Un Chien Andalou with Dalí 1929 and Le gé d Or 1930 two surprisingly avant garde productions that established his position as the undisputed master of Surrealist filmmaking He went on to make 30 full length features in France the US and Mexico and consolidated his international reputation with a Palme d Or for Viridiana in 1961 and an Academy Award in 1973 for The Discreet Charm of the Bourgeoisie He corresponded with some of the most famous writers directors actors and artists of his generation and the list of these correspondents reads like a roll call of major twentieth century cultural icons Fellini Truffaut Vigo Aragon Dalí Unik and yet none of this material has been accessible outside specialist archives and a very small number of publications in Spanish and French Luis Bunuel Peter William Evans, Isabel Santaolalla, 2019-07-25 This text ranges widely over key films and moments from stages of Luis Bunuel s career It locates and re appraises Bunuel s films with particular emphasis on the national cinemas and varied cultures with which he was identified Reading the Gospels in the Dark Richard Walsh, 2003-10-01 Films with Jesus or Jesus like characters have been part of movies since the earliest days and Walsh explores just what kind of impact they have had on their audiences Conversations with Bunuel Max Aub, 2017-05-02 This book features extended conversations with Spanish filmmaker Luis Bunuel 1900 1983 and interviews with his family members friends and colleagues including Salvador Dalí Louis Aragon and Fernando Rey conducted by Max Aub in the late 1960s and early 1970s Notorious for inventing fanciful versions of his life and his creative output Bunuel was hard put to deceive the astute Max Aub who shared Bunuel s background in Spain in Paris during the Spanish Civil War and in Mexico where they were friends and collaborators Originally published in Spain in 1985 this translated the first in English and expanded edition with several significant interviews and a detailed index not found in the original provides a detailed picture of Bunuel s life and art Extensive notes contextualize the conversations and acknowledge the discoveries of recent studies on Bunuel The Cinema of Aki Kaurismäki Andrew Nestingen, 2013-07-02 Since 1983 Aki Kaurismäki has made classically styled films filled with cinephilic references to film history influencing Jim Jarmusch Quentin Tarantino and Wes Anderson Yet the director is often depicted as the loneliest most nostalgic of Finns except when promoting his films making political statements and running his many businesses Drawing on revisionist approaches to film authorship this text links Kaurismäki s work to issues in film aesthetics and history nostalgia late modernity commerce film festivals and national cinema The Director's Idea Ken Dancyger, 2006 As a director you must have a concept a director s idea to shape your approach to the actors the camera and the script With this clear idea your film will be deeper and more effective and you will be able to differentiate and therefore make the choice between competent directing and great directing Using case studies of famous directors as real world examples of director s

Wild/lives Terrie Waddell, 2014-02-25 Wild lives draws on myth popular culture and analytical psychology to trace the machinations of trickster in contemporary film and television This archetypal energy traditionally gravitates toward liminal spaces physical locations and shifting states of mind By focusing on productions set in remote or isolated spaces Terrie Waddell explores how key trickster infused sites of transition reflect the psychological fragility of their willing and unwilling occupants In differing ways the selected texts Deadwood Grizzly Man Lost Solaris The Biggest Loser Amores Perros and Repulsion all play with inner and outer marginality As this study demonstrates the dramatic potential of transition is not always geared toward resolution Prolonging the anxiety of change is an increasingly popular option Trickster moves within this wildness and instability to agitate a form of dialogue between conscious and unconscious processes Waddell's imaginative interpretation of screen material and her original positioning of trickster will inspire students of media cinema gender and Jungian studies as well as academics with an interest in the application of Post Jungian ideas to screen culture the Borderlands tells the surprising story of the Mexican Western for the first time exploring how Mexican authors and artists reimagined US film and comic book Westerns to address Mexican politics and culture Abel Gance and the End of Silent Cinema Paul Cuff, 2016-11-10 This book explores the creation and destruction of Abel Gance's most ambitious film project and seeks to explain why his meteoric career was so nearly extinguished at the end of silent cinema. By 1929 Gance was France's most famous director. Acclaimed for his technical innovation and visual imagination, he was also admonished for the excessive length and expense of his productions. Gance's first sound film La Fin du Monde (1930) was a critical and financial disaster so great that it nearly destroyed his career. But what went wrong? Gance claimed it was commercial sabotage, whilst critics blamed the director's inexperience with new technology. Neither excuse is satisfactory. Based on extensive archival research, this book re-investigates the cultural background and aesthetic consequences of Gance's transition from silent filmmaking to sound cinema. La Fin du Monde is revealed to be only one element of an extraordinary cultural project to transform cinema into a universal religion and propagate its power through the League of Nations. From unfinished films to unrealized social revolutions, the reader is given a fascinating tour of Gance's lost cinematic utopia.

More than 450 rare and wonderful illustrations round out this treasure trove of cinematic lore, an essential reference for every bad film fan. Film Studies Glyn Davis, Kay Dickinson, Lisa Patti, Amy Villarejo, 2015-02-20 Film Studies: A Global Introduction reroutes film studies from its Euro-American focus and canon in order to introduce students to a medium that has always been global but has become differently and insistently so in the digital age. Glyn Davis, Kay Dickinson, Lisa Patti, and Amy Villarejo's approach encourages readers to think about film holistically by looking beyond the textual analysis of key films. In contrast, it engages with other vital areas such as financing, labour, marketing, distribution, exhibition, preservation, and politics, reflecting contemporary aspects of cinema production and consumption worldwide. Key features of the book include clear definitions of the key terms at the foundation of film studies; coverage of the work of key thinkers explained in their social and historical context; a broad range of relevant case studies that reflect the book's approach to global cinema, from Italian white telephone films to Mexican wrestling films; innovative and flexible exercises to help readers enhance their understanding of the histories, theories, and examples introduced in each chapter; an extensive Interlude introducing readers to formal analysis through the careful explication and application of key terms; a detailed discussion of strategies for writing about cinema. Film Studies: A Global Introduction will appeal to students studying film today and aspiring to work in the industry, as well as those eager to understand the world of images and screens in which we all live. The Movie Guide James Monaco, 1992 From The Big Sleep to Babette's Feast, from Lawrence of Arabia to Drugstore Cowboy, The Movie Guide offers the inside word on 3,500 of the best motion pictures ever made.
