Obsession Carolyn Beard Whitlow, Marilyn Krysl, 2014-03-04 The sestina of medieval French origin is a complex poetic form of 39 lines six sestets and a three line envoy in which the six end words teleutons of the lines of the first sestet stanza are repeated in a specific order as teleutons in the five succeeding sestets In the envoy the six teleutons are again picked up one of them being buried in and one finishing each line Because of the complexity of the form the sestina fell out of favor with poets for several decades However a twenty first century revival of the form is underway This is the first anthology of sestinas that showcases both traditional and innovative examples of the form by modern and contemporary poets award winners and emerging writers alike Organized by such themes as Americana Art Love and Sex and Memory Contemplation Retrospection and Death the collection also includes sestinas with irregular teleutons and unconventional sestinas An evocative introduction by Marilyn Krysl acquaints readers with the form The volume concludes with useful indexes of first far reaching literary history John Wharton Lowe remakes the map of American culture by revealing the deep persistent connections between the ideas and works produced by writers of the American South and the Caribbean Lowe demonstrates that a tendency to separate literary canons by national and regional boundaries has led critics to ignore deep ties across highly permeable borders Focusing on writers and literatures from the Deep South and Gulf states in relation to places including Mexico Haiti and Cuba Lowe reconfigures the geography of southern literature as encompassing the circumCaribbean a dynamic framework within which to reconsider literary history genre and aesthetics Considering thematic concerns such as race migration forced exile and colonial and postcolonial identity Lowe contends that southern literature and culture have always transcended the physical and political boundaries of the American South Lowe uses cross cultural readings of nineteenth and twentieth century writers including William Faulkner Martin Delany Zora Neale Hurston George Lamming Cristina Garcia Édouard Glissant and Madison Smartt Bell among many others to make his argument These literary figures Lowe argues help us uncover new ways of thinking about the shared culture of the South and Caribbean while demonstrating that southern literature has roots even farther south than we realize
