Volume 4 (2013) , 2013-11-21 Prayer is a phenomenon which seems to be characteristic not only of participants in every religion but also men and women who do not identify with traditional religions It can be practised even by those who do not believe either in a God or transcendent force In this sense therefore we may assert that the prayer is a typically human activity that has accompanied the development of different civilizations over the course of the centuries Both the material issues of concrete daily life as well as more symbolic elements expressed through words gestures body positions and community celebration are brought together in the act of praying Pulling Down Foundational Jericho Dr. D. K. Olukoya, 2012 Pulling Down Foundational Jericho If you cut off the flower leaf branch or stem of a tree within a particular time frame the part cut off will regenerate This is because the root is still under the ground to supply enough materials for the regeneration of any part that has been cut off If on the other hand you pull out a tree along with the root the story will be over for that tree In the same vein if you can spiritually address and destroy the root of the problem you are facing then that is the end of the problem Learn to employ this tactic in this book The Future Shape of Christian Proclamation Cleophus J. LaRue, Luiz C. Nascimento, 2020-08-03 Christianity is turning brown and moving south The Christianity the West has known is in recession and has all but dwindled out of recognition in the opening years of the twenty first century Well over half of the world's Christians now live in the Global South Africa Asia and Latin America They are according to Aberdeen missiologist Andrew Walls the new Representative Christians What they think about Christianity will matter more and more and what North America thinks about Christianity will matter less and less This massive shift in geography and theological point of departure will have a major impact on Christian preaching now and into the future The Future Shape of Christian Proclamation seeks to begin the conversation about how preaching in the Global South will inform the whole of Christian preaching in the coming years Dealing with unprofitable foundations Dr. D. K.
