Our elementary middle and high school teaching about Jews Judaism and Israel is driven by textbook misstatements about Jewish theology social structure and the history of Israel that comprise an unsavory picture of Jews and Israel This book will be an extremely valuable reference tool for educators and members of the public interested in religion and the Middle East

McDougal Littell World History: Patterns of Interaction McDougal Littell, 1998-11 Teaching Global History Alan J. Singer, 2012-04-27 Teaching Global History challenges prospective and beginning social studies teachers to formulate their own views about what is important to know in global history and why It explains how to organize the curriculum around broad social studies concepts and themes and student questions about humanity history and the contemporary world All chapters include lesson ideas a sample lesson plan with activity sheets primary source documents and helpful charts graphs photographs and maps High school students responses are woven in throughout Additional material corresponding to each chapter is posted online at http://people.hofstra.edu/alan_j_singer The traditional curriculum tends to highlight the Western heritage and to race through epochs and regions leaving little time for an in depth exploration of concepts and historical themes for the evaluation of primary and secondary sources and for students to draw their own historical conclusions Offering an alternative to such pre packaged textbook outlines and materials this text is a powerful resource for promoting thoughtful reflection and debate about what the global history curriculum should be and how to teach it Modern World History: Patterns of Interaction Holt McDougal, 2005-01 Children's Books in Print, 2007 , 2006 A People's Curriculum for the Earth Bill Bigelow, Tim Swinehart, 2014-11-14 A People's Curriculum for the Earth is a collection of articles role plays simulations stories poems and graphics to help breathe life into teaching about the environmental crisis The book features some of the best articles from Rethinking Schools magazine alongside classroom friendly readings on climate change energy water food and pollution as well as on people who are working to make things better A People's Curriculum for the Earth has the breadth and depth of Rethinking Globalization Teaching for Justice in an Unjust World one of the most popular books we've published At a time when it's becoming increasingly obvious that life on Earth is at risk here is a resource that helps students see what's wrong and imagine solutions Praise for A People's Curriculum for the Earth To really confront the climate crisis we need to think differently build differently and teach differently A People's Curriculum for the Earth is an educator's toolkit for our times Naomi Klein author of The Shock Doctrine and This Changes Everything Capitalism vs the Climate This volume is a marvelous example of justice in ALL facets of our lives civil social educational economic and yes environmental Bravo to the Rethinking Schools team for pulling this collection together and making us think more holistically about what we mean when we talk about justice Gloria Ladson Billings Kellner Family Chair in Urban Education University of Wisconsin Madison Bigelow and Swinehart have created a critical resource for today's young people about humanity's responsibility for the Earth. This book can engender the shift in perspective so needed at this point on the clock of the universe. MCDUGAL, 2011-01-05 McDougal Littell World History: Medieval and Early Modern Times McDougal Littell, 2005-03-16 Combines motivating stories with research-based instruction that helps students improve their reading and social studies skills as they discover the past. Every lesson of the textbook is keyed to California content standards and analysis skills.

Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer, 2008-10-26 This popular text advocates an inquiry and activity-based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers. Based in practice and experience, it offers systematic support and open, honest advice for new teachers. It is conversational, not pedantic, and provides lots of examples. While the structure and most of the topics remain largely the same as before, this Third Edition presents new lesson ideas in every chapter, especially designed to help new teachers to address learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms. It puts a heavier focus on what is important to know and why, includes new essays on the politics of social studies education, responds to opponents of project or activity-based social studies instruction, and multicultural education with a sharpened defense of both of these approaches throughout the book. Intended as a text for undergraduate and graduate pre-service social studies methods courses, this text is also useful for in-service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice.
