Compassionate Leadership for School Improvement and Renewal Kara Lasater, Kristina N. LaVenía, 2024-01-01 Compassionate Leadership for School Improvement and Renewal aims to equip educational leaders with the knowledge skills and learning experiences necessary to approach their work from an intentional stance of compassion Schools serve as both sites and sources of suffering yet compassionate leadership can facilitate healing for students educators and community members The moment is right to move the field toward a compassion centered approach to leadership In recent years people around the world have experienced unfathomable loss and suffering due to the COVID 19 pandemic persistent inequities and subsequent social justice protests war and violence and catastrophic natural disasters These events created perpetual anxiety stress fear uncertainty loss and grief for millions of people including educators Now perhaps more than ever people need to give and receive compassion The purpose of the volume is to build educational leaders capacity to demonstrate compassion foster collective compassion within their schools and districts establish organizational environments in which compassion is routinely given and received and subsequently transform schools into sites of healing Ultimately through the unique contributions of each chapter this volume offers a path toward school improvement that is both renewing and sustaining

ENDORSEMENTS As a former school counselor and school administrator my view about compassionate leadership is one grounded in relational practice This may be obvious to some but unfortunately lost on many This thoughtful volume edited by Kara Lasater and Kristina LaVenía explores a desperately needed reformulation of school leadership for our times Compassionate leadership takes enormous courage because it works against much of the institutional ethos that forms and frames the role thinking and behaviors of those ostensibly charged to both manage and lead schools William C Frick University of Oklahoma The education system is in its most challenging period in decades perhaps in the past century The need now is to address student staff and organizational suffering Lasater and LaVenita et al offer antidotes in this volume by providing up to date research theory and insight to cultivate conceptualize and practice compassionate educational leadership For those who teach and lead with their heart this book is essential reading Joseph A Polizzi Sacred Heart University In an increasingly challenging educational landscape leaders find themselves facing teacher shortages student trauma and learning loss Schools could easily become institutions rife with secondary trauma and burned out professionals operating in stark contrast to the unifying motivations that drew each of us into this profession This volume reminds us that among the many skill sets leaders must employ organizational and leader compassion fulfills a fundamental human need and unlocks a means by which schools can transform from professional survival to the joyful work of changing lives for the better Joshua Ray Greenwood Public Schools New York Magazine ,1997-06-16 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Primetime 1966-1967 Thom "Beefstew" Shubilla,2022-04-26 The year 1966 was when many TV viewers all over America discovered the wonders of in living color The 1966 1967 primetime television lineup was remarkable not only for the legendary shows that aired but also because it was the first season in which every show on primetime across all three major networks was broadcast entirely in color Celebrating this iconic year of television this book covers every scripted episodic show that aired on the ABC CBS and NBC networks during the 1966 1967 season in primetime It includes longtime favorites such as Batman Bonanza Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea and The Lucy Show and the notable shows that premiered that year such as Star Trek The Monkees Green Hornet Mission Impossible It s About Time and the color revival of Dragnet Organized by genre each entry examines a show from conception to cancelation and sometimes beyond ratings critical and fan reactions and the show s use of color

Political Straight Talk H. John Lyke,2016-02-25 In writing the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution our Founding Fathers established a democratic republic with a solid political basis What they wrote was the political map that future representatives would need to follow to conduct the people s business in an efficient and effective manner As long as they faithfully carried out the people s will our democracy and republic would function in a way congruent with our forebears wishes What in the world happened H John Lyke a board certified psychologist and professor emeritus at Metropolitan State College of Denver and the author of multiple political psychology books suggests that ever since George Washington retired as captain of our ship of state subsequent presidents and members of Congress have failed to use the sailing chart of the Constitution Instead they ve chosen to pursue their own and their political parties self interests Lyke uses psychological principles to explore the reasons why our government has fallen so low and in the voice of a kind but determined therapist he
