

GUN CONTROL LEGISLATION IN 2018

OVERVIEW

Every state has introduced gun control legislation in some form in 2018. Here's a sampling of gun control legislation passed since Jan. 1, 2018.

KEY TERMS DEFINED

RED FLAG LAWS

These laws are known as extreme risk protection orders (ERPOs) or gun violence restraining orders when a judge is able to issue an order that enables law enforcement to confiscate guns from individuals deemed a risk to themselves or others.

BUMP STOCKS

A bump stock is a piece of plastic or metal attached to a semi-automatic weapon that fires like an automatic weapon, allowing a shooter to fire dozens of rounds in seconds by bumping the gun's recoil cord.

ASSAULT-STYLE WEAPONS

What constitutes an assault weapon is a point of contention and often varies on the jurisdiction. When the when the controversial Federal Assault Weapons Ban passed in 1994, the U.S. Dept. of Justice said, "In general, assault weapons are semiautomatic firearms with a large magazine of ammunition that were designed and configured for rapid fire and combat use."

FLORIDA

Florida Gov. Rick Scott signed a bill in March that raises the minimum age to purchase a firearm to 21 from 18, requires a three-day waiting period for firearm purchases, bans the sale or possession of bump-fire stocks, and allows some teachers to be armed.

WASHINGTON

Gov. Jay Inslee signed a bill in March making it a crime to manufacture or sell the bump stocks starting in July 2018. Starting in July 2018, it will be illegal to buy, own, furnish, assemble, repair, loan, transport or possess bump stocks in the state. The Washington State Patrol is creating a bump stock buyback program for $150 per device.

NEW JERSEY

Gov. Phil Murphy signed an executive order on April 3 requiring some information related to gun offenses be made available to the public, including quarterly reports on what states guns used in crimes had come from. More than 80 percent of the guns used in crimes committed in New Jersey came from outside the state, according to the New Jersey's Office of the Attorney General.

NEW YORK

Gov. Andrew M. Cuomo announced in March the passage of legislation to remove guns from domestic abusers. The legislation closes a loophole in state law in order to ensure domestic abusers are required to surrender all firearms, not just handguns. The legislation also ensures individuals wanted for a felony or other serious offense are not able to obtain or own a firearm license.

OREGON

Gov. Kate Brown signed a measure that bans people convicted of stalking and domestic violence or under restraining orders from buying or owning firearms and ammunition.

RHODE ISLAND

Gov. Gina Raimondo signed an executive order establishing a "red flag" policy to prevent people from having guns if they are deemed a danger to themselves or others.

SOUTH DAKOTA

Gov. Dennis Daugaard in March signed an act to require a National Instant Criminal Background Check for certain convicted carry permits.
