You're Not Crazy—You're Grieving: Dr. Alan Wolfelt, Alan D. Wolfelt, 2023-04-01 After a significant loss it's common to feel like we're going crazy. The sudden absence of someone we love is not only devastating it's disorienting. They were here one moment and now they're gone. Forever. How can that be? The first year or two of grief is often unbelievably painful and confusing. We're in shock often for weeks or months. Time seems out of whack. We feel powerless, helpless and ineffective. We can't think straight, we can't get anything done. Our moods swing wildly and we say and do crazy things. We cry and we cling to objects that belonged to the person who died. We have bizarre dreams. We think we hear, see or experience communications from the person who died. We wonder if we can or should go on. And through it all, our minds and hearts return over and over again to the impossible reality that can never again talk to or touch a person who lived and breathed and gave our lives so much meaning. There is nothing more challenging than the early months and years of a major life loss. But this compassionate book by one of the world's most beloved grief counselors will help you endure. Dr. Wolfelt presents the six key steps to coping with a death. You may feel like you're going crazy but you're not. You're grieving. Your thoughts, feelings and reactions are normal. And you can and will survive. What's more, your days in deep grief will be a little easier if you turn to these six steps.
