What can we learn about our communities from the work we do? How can we develop our employability skills? Sector examples: Extensive use is made of examples of the working practices of teachers, social workers, police officers, civil servants, third sector workers as well as from people engaged in low skilled work. The student voice: The student voice draws upon the relationship between their own experiences of work and the key issues covered in the book. Written as an introductory text for students studying the social sciences it deals with the ways in which students can appreciate the sociology and politics of work and develop an understanding of their own skills and employability. This book is particularly relevant to students studying work related learning as part of their social science degrees and to those who wish to enhance their employability and prospects in graduate level employment. EBOOK: Principles and Practice of Marketing JOBBER, DAVID/E, 2016-03-16 EBOOK Principles and Practice of Marketing
