Robilant,2014-05-06 From the author of the best selling A Venetian Affair here is the charming chronicle of his search for the identity of a mysterious old rose Andrea di Robilant s tale takes us back to the time of Josephine Bonaparte as well as into some of the most delightful rose gardens in Italy today brought to colorful life on the page in the watercolors of artist Nina Fuga In his 2008 biography of the Venetian lady Lucia Mocenigo his great great great great grandmother di Robilant described a pink rose that grows wild on the family s former country estate mentioning its light peach and raspberry scent This passing detail led to an invitation for an audience with a local rose doyenne Eleonora Garland She and other experts wondered if di Robilant s unnamed rose could possibly be one of the long lost China varieties that nineteenth century European growers had cultivated but which have since disappeared On the hunt for the identity of his anonymous yet quietly distinctive rose Di Robilant finds himself captivated by roseophiles through time from Lucia and her friend Josephine Bonaparte to the gifted Eleonora whose garden of nearly fifteen hundred varieties of old roses is one of the most significant in Europe and by the roses themselves each of which has a tale to tell What starts out as a lighthearted quest becomes a meaningful journey as di Robilant contemplates the enduring beauty of what is passed down to us in a rose through both the generosity of nature and the cultivating hand of human beings who for centuries have embraced and extended the life of this mysterious flower Irresistible North Andrea Di Robilant,2012-08-07 A century before Columbus arrived in America two brothers from Venice are said to have explored parts of the New World They became legends during the Renaissance and then the source of a great scandal that would discredit their story Today they have been largely forgotten In this very original work part history part travelogue Andrea di Robilant chronicles his discovery of a travel narrative published in 1558 by the Venetian statesman Nicol Zen The text and its fascinating nautical map re created the travels of two of the author s ancestors brothers who claimed to have explored the North Atlantic in the 1380s and 1390s Di Robilant sets out to discover why the Zens account later came under attack as one of the greatest frauds in geographical history Was their map and even their journey partially or perhaps entirely faked This Earthly Globe Andrea Di Robilant,2024-06-18 From the author of the
