How To Do Your Own Focus Groups A Guide For Trial Attorneys:

How to Do Your Own Focus Groups David A. Ball, 2001      Focus Groups Graham R. Walden, 2008-07-07 This volume is the first of two volumes that address the most recent ten years 1997 2006 of focus group studies and research literature Volume one provides coverage of the arts and humanities social sciences and the nonmedical sciences and volume two concentrates on the medical and health sciences These volumes cover the English language academic literature books chapters in books journal articles and significant pamphlets available in libraries via interlibrary loan and online A variety of materials are included instructional guides handbooks reference works textbooks and academic journal literature In Focus Groups Volume I the following subject disciplines have been considered in the arts and humanities_linguistics music religion and sports and leisure studies in the social sciences_anthropology business cartography communication demography education law library science political science psychology and sociology and in the non medical sciences_agriculture biology engineering environmental sciences and physics The selected entries have a minimum of four pages and include 29 books 50 book chapters 349 articles and 10 pamphlets for a total of 438 entries An appendix includes the titles of the 245 journals cited along with the appropriate entry numbers for each Author and subject indexes provide access to the contents with the subject index providing access to unique terms The detailed contents pages are designed to enable the reader to quickly find appropriate entries through the use of extensive and detailed subheadings      Jury Selection V. Hale Starr, Mark McCormick, 2009-01-01 Here is an outstanding source that combines expert analysis of the law governing jury selection with a full and definitive explanation of all current scientific methodology employed in that process Beginning with in depth exploration of the legal issues in jury law today Jury Selection Fourth Edition goes on to provide detailed guidance available in no other single source on such crucial topics and procedures as Background investigation Community attitude surveying Batson challenges Voir dire techniques and strategies Nonverbal communication With specific courtroom applications of all the relevant scientific methodology Jury Selection Fourth Edition is a must for the litigator who wants to use the most advanced techniques available to ensure a fair minded and unprejudiced jury      Human Behavior and the Social Environment, Macro Level Katherine van Wormer, Fred H. Besthorn, 2010-10-11 A timely revision in this global age Human Behavior and the Social Environment Macro Level develops a sophisticated and original view of the cultural global spiritual and natural worlds that people inhabit and the impact of these worlds on human behavior Its major new theme sustainability emerges as a key characteristic of contemporary practice What is sustainable social work What are the characteristics of a sustainable community How is the present exploitation of environmental resources unsustainable for future generations Following the greatest economic upheaval since the Great Depression how can we envision a sustainable economy that will benefit all the people not only the wealthy few Human behavior results from biological psychological socio economic and cultural forces but the mental health field has placed the most emphasis on intrapsychic factors to the near exclusion of socio economic and cultural considerations This significant collaboration seeks to correct this omission by helping students recognize patterns in the family culture and value systems in order to create safe and sustainable environments for their future clients The emphasis on sustainable and unsustainable social welfare programs is geared to helping readers engage in advocacy for social justice Integrates up to date research findings models and government statistics Enhanced discussions of theory group dynamics family community and the environment Theoretical concepts and practice implications in each chapter Highlights the importance of the natural environment and ecology the community of the earth to human and group behavior Sets forth a refined understanding of the role of spirituality the community of faith in people s lives Focuses on evidence based theory and research Teaches from a global cross cultural perspective highlighting themes of empowerment and social justice Features dynamic readings personal narratives and photographs that highlight each chapter s topic Accompanied by an online instructor s manual with lecture presentations chapter summaries key terms suggested classroom activities and a test bank with essay and multiple choice questions at www.oup.com/us/HBSE Don t miss the companion volume Human Behavior and the Social Environment Micro Level Second Edition which offers an eye opening view of how biological psychological and cultural forces influence individuals behavior David Ball on Damages David A. Ball,2005

The Trial Lawyer David Berg,2006 Six hours of lectures and mock trial demonstrations based on the author s 39 years of trial practice experience The material emphasizes the development of skills needed by young lawyers Berg offers practical tips and advice as well trial strategies and techniques Theater Tips and Strategies for Jury Trials David A. Ball,2003 In this new third edition of Theater Tips and Strategies for Jury Trials David Ball updates his methods and approaches to jury persuasion This practical step by step guide helps you navigate the changes that occur in jury trials instead of being blindsided by them Based on both research and the experience of lawyers and trial consultants across the country Theater Tips and Strategies for Jury Trials Third Edition presents techniques of the stage and screen you can use to win in the courtroom Ball tells how to use theater concepts to persuade and motivate jurors He tells attorneys how to look talk and act naturally and to communicate the truth clearly and memorably so they gain trust and credibility from judges and jurors Ball provides practical guidance for voir dire openings and closings testimony and focus groups He describes what practitioners can learn from actors about their manner voice projection and behavior He explains how to grab the jury from the beginning just as a good movie opening captures the audience He details how to prepare your 28 cast Searching the Law, 3d Edition Frank Bae,Edward Bander,Francis Doyle,Joel Fishman,Paul Richert,2021-12-13 Theater Tips and Strategies for Jury Trials David Ball,1997 In well organized chapters on the trial s characters rehearsal techniques audience props plot point of view Ball s book provides useful advice to novice experience legal actors Even those who never try a jury case will learn a lot about audience persuasion which is a crucial skill in many theaters of a lawyer s life besides producer theater professor trial consultant has woven together a highly readable compendium of how to s how not to s for trial lawyers

I highly recommend this book for trial attorneys with limited experience. Even seasoned trial attorneys will find Mr. Ball's book a valuable mini refresher course. The book shows trial lawyers how to use concepts from theater to persuade, motivate. After all, there is no finer stage than the courtroom. In this revised, expanded second edition, Ball provides practical guidance for voir dire, openings, closings, testimony, focus groups. He describes what practitioners can learn from actors about their manner, voice, projection, behavior. He tells how to grab the jury from the beginning, just as a good movie opening captures the audience. He details the preparation of your cast of witnesses so they testify clearly, credibly, memorably. And he offers advice on telling your story so that it commands attention, motivates jurors to argue for your side.

Research Methods for Studying Groups and Teams Andrea Hollingshead, Marshall Scott Poole, 2012-05-22 This volume provides an overview of the methodological issues and challenges inherent in the study of small groups from the perspective of seasoned researchers in communication psychology and other fields in the behavioral and social sciences. It summarizes the current state of group methods in a format that is readable, insightful, and useful for both new and experienced group researchers. This collection of essays will inspire new and established researchers alike to look beyond their current methodological approaches, covering both traditional and new methods for studying groups and exploring the full range of groups in face-to-face and online settings. The volume will be an important addition to graduate study on group research and will be a valuable reference for established group researchers, consultants, and other practitioners. The essays in this volume, when considered as a whole, will be a contemporary interdisciplinary integration on group research methods.

The Focus Group Directory of the ... Greenbook, 2000

Winning at Trial D. Shane Read, 2007-06-11 Chosen the best book from over 300 entries. Winning at Trial has been singled out by the Association of Continuing Legal Education (ACLEA) for its clarity and innovative teaching methods. Winning at Trial by Shane Read is the only book that teaches trial skills by analyzing video and transcripts of actual trials. It is also the only book that reveals the secrets of jury decision making through the use of video in collaboration with one of the nation's foremost jury consultants, DecisionQuest. This innovative book is being used by law schools throughout the country for both their introductory and advanced trial advocacy classes, as well as by law firms for their training programs. The author, a seasoned trial lawyer and professor, has carefully selected video and transcripts from actual trials, 4 hours of video on two DVDs that show lawyers demonstrating both great and terrible skills in the courtroom, which teach trial techniques and strategy in an interesting and memorable way.
