

PARALEGAL JOBS WHICH ONE IS FOR YOU?

WHICH ONE DID YOU GET?

Government Paralegal: You are inquisitive with a need to always dig out the truth, and you are drawn to the grand achievements of humankind. This will suit you well as you act as an aid in military correspondence, or even work at the white house.

Bankruptcy Paralegal: You will be called upon when people are at one of the hardest junctures in their life. Your job will be to assist those in need of bankruptcy protection, a very complex process. You will need an in depth knowledge of both state and federal bankruptcy laws and regulations.

Real Estate Paralegal: When your friends ask what a quit-claim is, you are the first to answer. You are more in touch with the business of structures and finances than intellectual property and mergers. Everyone needs a place to live, and you will be there when that need results in legal action.

Litigation Paralegal: You have a natural need to investigate. You relish the thought of bringing the truth to light and are not afraid to put yourself in the thick of it. As a litigation paralegal you will interview witnesses, create initial case assessments, and live the fantasy of being a courtroom investigator.

Insurance Paralegal: You want to immerse yourself in the world of business, but you have a fairly suspicious nature. This will serve you well. As an insurance paralegal you will work to distinguish between legitimate and fraudulent insurance claims.

Employment and Labor Law Paralegal: You are not one to dabble in the affairs of large corporations or governments; instead you recognize the need to handle the affairs of the people that keep those organizations running. As an Employment and Labor Law Paralegal you will deal with HR matters, negotiate with trade unions, and workplace issues.

Immigration Paralegal: Smart and with a passion to help others, you will excel as an Immigration Paralegal. In this role you will be the backbone of a team whose job it is to make sure people are able to live freely where they choose. Being at least bilingual is a must and an interest in international relations is a huge bonus.

Corporate Paralegal: You look to impress, business and life are one in the same for you. As a Corporate Paralegal your job will throw you directly into the legal frying pan as large companies squish together, mergers, stock options, and intellectual property disputes.

Estate Planning and Probate Paralegal: A compassionate soul, you are able to not only deal with but also rise to the occasion of those dealing with a loss. Primarily you will deal with wills, but also divorces, and any other instance in which family and individual assets change hands. These are some of the more highly paid paralegal positions available.
