Venturing Upon Dizzy Heights Bruce Ross, 2008 This book assembles lectures and essays on literature William Wordsworth Walter Benjamin Chinese mountain poetry Friedrich Nietzsche the Tao Te Ching art Paleolithic cave art Vincent Van Gogh American landscape painting and Japanese poetry forms haiku haibun tanka that were originally presented and published between 2000 and 2007 The essays identify strategies to counter the so called postmodern condition Matters of will ethics and consciousness are examined in comparative contexts with the aim of formulizing models of enlightened states of being and their aesthetic expressions This study focuses on Wordsworth s rainbow epiphany Walter Benjamin s aura and monad Chinese mountain poetry s cosmic emptiness Nietzsche s Hyperborean Paleolithic cave art s transpersonal expression Van Gogh s dizzy heights of natural beauty American landscape painters depiction of the sublime haiku s absolute metaphor epiphany and tanka s connection between natural beauty and erotic feeling The collection is a re examination of Ralph Waldo Emerson s fundamental unity between humanity and nature as well as an examination of often unmediated affective experience and its expression in this context through literature and art

Shambhala Sun , 2001      Cross-Cultural Multimedia Computing Shlomo Dubnov, Kevin

Burns, Yasushi Kiyoki, 2016-08-19 The ability to communicate cultural codes in multimedia depends on their meaning and beauty as perceived by different audiences around the globe In this book the ongoing research on computational modeling of visual musical and textual contents is described in terms of identifying and mapping their semantic representations across different cultures The underlying psychology of sense making is quantified through analysis of aesthetics in terms of organizational and structural aspects of the contents that influence an audience's formation of expectations for future signals violations of these expectations and explanations of their meaning Complexity accuracy tradeoffs in sound representation are further used to develop new computational methods that capture poetic and aesthetic aspects in music communication Experimental studies are reported that try to characterize preferences for complexity in abstract classical and traditional art and music across samples of Western and Far Eastern cultures These experiments illustrate how aesthetics can be computed in terms of semantic and information measures highlighting commonalities and uncovering differences in aesthetic preferences across cultures and individuals

A Poetic Language of Ageing Olga V. Lehmann, Oddgeir

Synnes, 2023-05-18 Exploring the potential of poetry and poetic language as a means of conveying perspectives on later life this book examines questions such as how can we understand ageing and later life and how can we capture the ambiguities and complexities that the experiences of growing old in time and place entail As poetic language illuminates transfigures and enchants our being in the world it also offers insights into the existential questions that are amplified as we age including the vulnerabilities and losses that humble us and connect us This volume suggests a path towards the poetics of ageing by means of presenting analyses of published poetry on ageing ranging from William Shakespeare to George Oppen the use of reading and writing poetry among lay people in old age including persons living with dementia and the poetic nuances that emerge from other literary practices and contexts in relation to ageing counting personal poetic reflections from many of the contributing authors

Performance in the Field

David Overend, 2023-04-28 This book makes a compelling case for performance fieldwork as a vital new approach to interdisciplinary collaboration Refocussing the histories and practices of field research it shows how creative methods and artistic processes can contribute to an embodied and situated knowledge of complex landscapes and environments The book brings together case studies of innovative research in the fields of ecology clubbing heritage mobility and deep time which took place in the United Kingdom between 2009 and 2021 These accessible and engaging field notes connect to international and intercultural contexts with attention to alternative experiences and perspectives throughout Together they provide a critically informed toolbox of playful and exploratory strategies for working with a diverse range of urban and rural sites including a river a museum a nightclub a motorway and a cave This is a timely methodology that reaches across disciplines to demonstrate how performance continually plays out in the field of Grief J. Earl Rogers, 2011-02-10 Art and other expressive therapies are increasingly used in grief counseling not only among children and adolescents but throughout the developmental spectrum Creative activities are commonly used in group and individual psychotherapy programs but it is only relatively recently that these expressive modalities have been employed within the context of clinical grief work in structured settings These forms of nonverbal communication are often more natural ways to express thoughts and feelings that are difficult to discuss particularly when it comes to issues surrounding grief and loss Packed with pictures and instructional detail this book includes an eight session curriculum for use with grief support groups as well as alternative modalities of grief art therapy Sohkido Sky,2012-03-27 SohKiDo is a Japanese hybrid word created by Dr Sky that essentially means the way of transpersonal creativity SohKiDo reveals writing as a means to express and heal to grow and probe the depths of spiritual mysteries It is a multi faceted book offering insights into energy creativity and spirituality A theoretical framework and practical tool is introduced to identify whether the writing is Personal Transpersonal or Universal This Prism of Consciousness tool enhances writers ability to increase their awareness of the sources and the final product of their inspiration and allows transpersonal to be identified and manifest in the written word

Poetry - From Reading to Writing Robert Hull,2009-12-04 Poetry From Reading to Writing covers the process of writing poetry from reading poems through to writing them It is intended particularly for teachers at key stage 2 level but other teachers will also find it valuable It is clearly and accessibly written and jargon free In providing a wealth of practical ideas and activities preparing for the writing of poems the book also stresses the use of talk improvised drama and the reading and performance of poems The author who has published four collections of poetry uses his own work and the work of others to explore how creative readings of poems can spark a child s imagination and lead to original writing Pupils are encouraged throughout the book to explore different forms of poetry including Rhyming and non rhyming poems Riddles Short poems Haiku tanka renga Poems from stories Free verse Narrative poems Poems drawing on current affairs and history This book can be used by both pupils and teachers and contains motivating tasks and tips to build pupils confidence in poetry writing Explicit links are made throughout to the latest primary framework for literacy making this an invaluable resource for all practising and trainee teachers who wish to teach poetry in the classroom in a creative and enjoyable way Bibliographic
