How To Live/what To Do Hds Cultural Poetics:

How to Live/what to Do Adalaide Kirby Morris, 2003 Adalaide Morris removes the work of the iconic writer H D from the various compartments into which it has traditionally been placed and examines what she terms the ongoingness of her writing showing her to be a playful linguistic innovator whose writings are relevant to many fields of human activity H.D. and Modernist Religious Imagination Elizabeth Anderson, 2013-10-03 Exploring the intersection of religious sensibility and creativity in the poetry and prose of the American modernist writer H D this volume explores the nexus of the religious the visionary the creative and the material Drawing on original archival research and analyses of newly published and currently unpublished writings by H D Elizabeth Anderson shows how the poet s work is informed by a range of religious traditions from the complexities and contradictions of Moravian Christianity to a wide range of esoteric beliefs and practices H D and Modernist Religious Imagination brings H D s texts into dialogue with the French theorist H l ne Cixous whose attention to writing imagination and the sacred has been a neglected but rich critical and theological resource In analysing the connection both writers craft between the sacred the material and the creative this study makes a thoroughly original contribution to the emerging scholarly conversation on modernism and religion and the debate on the inter relation of the spiritual and the material within the interdisciplinary field of literature and religion Inciting Poetics Jeanne Heuving, Tyrone Williams, 2019-06-15 The essays in Inciting Poetics provide provocative answers to the book s opening question What are poetics now Authored by some of the most important contemporary poets and critics the essays present new theoretical and practical approaches to poetry and poetics that address current topics and approaches in the field as well as provide fresh readings of a number of canonical poets The four sections What is Poetics Critical Interventions Cross Cultural Imperatives and Digital Capital and Institutional Frames create a basis on which both experienced readers and newcomers can build an understanding of how to think and write about poetry The diverse voices throughout the collection are both informative and accessible and offer a rich exploration of multiple approaches to thinking and writing about poetry today Stylistic Innovation, Conscious Experience, and the Self in Modernist Women's Poetry Kristina Marie Darling, 2021-10-07 Stylistic Innovation Conscious Experience and the Self in Modernist Women s Poetry examines representations of philosophical discourses in Modernist women s writing Philosophers argued in the early twentieth century for an understanding of the self as both corporeal and relational shaped and reshaped by interactions within a community The once clear distinction between self and other was increasingly called into question This breakdown of boundaries between self and world often manifested in the style of early twentieth century literary works Modernist poetry like stream of consciousness fiction used metaphor sound and a revision of received grammatical structures to blur the boundaries between the individual and collective This book explores the ways that feminist writers like Mina Loy H D Gertrude Stein and Marianne Moore used style and technique to respond to these philosophical debates reclaiming agency over a predominantly male philosophical discourse While many critics have addressed the thematic content of these writers work few scholars have taken up this question while focusing on the style of the writing This book shows how these feminist poets used seemingly small stylistic choices in poetry to make necessary contributions to contemporary philosophical discourses ultimately rendering these philosophical conversations more inclusive The Cambridge Companion to H. D. Nephie J.

Epic Negation C.D. Blanton, 2015-03-12 The history of the epic ranging from the heroic narratives of cultural origin found in Homer and Virgil to the tumultuous theological and political conflicts depicted by Dante or Milton is nearly as old as literature itself But the epic is also made and remade by its present adapted to the pressures and formal necessities of its particular cultural moment Examining modernist poetry's epic turn in the years between the two World Wars C D Blanton's ambitious study charts the inversion of what Ezra Pound called a poem including history into a fractured and hollowed form a negated epic that struggles not only to acknowledge the distant past but also to conceive its immediate present Compelled to register the force of a larger historical totality it cannot directly represent the negated epic reorients the function of poetic language trading expression or signification for concrete but often buried reference remaking the poem as an instrument of dialectical reason in the process Epic Negation turns first to T S Eliot productively pairing The Waste Land with The Criterion the literary review it announced in 1922 to argue that Eliot's journal systematically realizes the editorial and critical method through which modernism's epochal poem sought to think its moment whole developing a totalizing account of interwar culture Dividing the epic's critical function from its style The Criterion not only includes history differently but also formulates an intricately dialectical account of the crisis facing bourgeois society formed in the image of a Marxism it opposes World War II's approach serves to organize the second half of Blanton's study as he traces the dislocated formal effects of a serial epic gone underground In the tense elegies and pastorals of W H Auden and Louis MacNeice lyric forms cryptically divulge the determining force of unmentionable but universal events dividing experience against consciousness what can be said in a poem from what cannot And finally with H D's Trilogy written under bombardment in a terse exchange with Freud's famous rewriting of biblical history in Moses and Monotheism the poetic image itself lapses consigning epic to the silent historical force of the unconscious Uniquely conceived and deftly executed Epic Negation transforms our understanding of modernist poetics and the concept of epic more broadly

Lyric Trade Julia Bloch,2024-04-29 Sometimes the word lyric seems to appear everywhere either it s used interchangeably with the word poetry or it attaches to descriptions of literature art film and even ordinary objects in order to capture some quality of aesthetic appeal or meaning Lyric Trade is not yet another attempt to define the lyric but instead it digs into how poems use lyric in relation to race gender nation and empire Engaging with poets such as Gwendolyn Brooks H D Lorine Niedecker Alice Notley and Myung Mi Kim this book asks What does lyric mean and why should it matter to poets and readers Lyric Trade argues that lyric in the postwar long poem not only registers the ideological contradictions of modernism s insistence on new forms but that it also maps spaces for formal reimaginings of the subject

Poetics of Emergence Benjamin Lee,2020-07-01 Experimental poetry responded to historical change in the decades after World War II with an attitude of such casual and reckless originality that its insights have often been overlooked However as Benjamin Lee argues to ignore the scenes of self and the historical occasions captured by experimental poets during the 1950s and 1960s is to overlook a rich and instructive resource for our own complicated transition into the twenty first century Frank O Hara and fellow experimental poets like Amiri Baraka Diane di Prima and Allen Ginsberg offer us a set of perceptive responses to Cold War culture lyric meditations on consequential changes in U S social life and politics including the decline of the Old Left the rise of white collar workers and the emergence of vernacular practices like hipsterism and camp At the same time they offer us opportunities to anatomize our own desire for historical significance and belonging a desire we may well see reflected and reconfigured in the work of these poets
