How to Make Love All Night (And Drive a Woman Wild) Lance Candella,2015-12-27 Daniel and Allison have been making love on a rainy Sunday morning and they are both totally turned on It started in the shower with a slow massage and moved to the bedroom where they have been having intercourse for the past ten minutes Daniel knows that Allison needs at least another five minutes of intercourse before she can climax Here s the problem Daniel doesn t think he has five minutes left in him If Daniel continues having intercourse the way he has for the past ten minutes it may be only a matter of seconds before he has an orgasm He thinks about slowing down or stopping but to break the rhythm now would only make it more difficult for Allison to climax He knows that Allison is at that stage where any kind of change in his movement would only frustrate her Besides if he tried to stop or to change the rhythm Daniel could lose strength in his erection which would complicate matters even further This dilemma is making the whole experience a lot less pleasurable for Daniel The first few minutes of sex were pure excitement but now he is worried and conflicted It is hard to enjoy sex when you re fighting your own body Truth is you really can t enjoy sex when you re fighting your own body And neither can your partner What Daniel does not yet know is that he has another option male multiple orgasm The multi orgasmic man has staying power He doesn t have to hold back He doesn t have to fight his own body and deny himself his own pleasure He can enjoy all of the erotic sensations of intercourse have a full orgasm and keep going If he wishes he can have a second orgasm and keep going He can last as long as his partner wishes experience all of the excitement and release and keep going For the multi orgasmic man the sky is truly the limit Daniel is not the only man who has this exciting option Today techniques have been perfected to make male multiple

The Athenaeum, 1858 Planning the Family in Egypt Kamran Asdar Ali, 2013-11-06 In this ethnographic study the author examines the policies and practices of family planning programs in Egypt to see how an elitist Western informed state attempts to create obliging citizens The state sees voluntary compliance with the law for the common good as the cornerstone of modernity Family planning programs are a training ground for the construction of self-disciplined individuals and thus a rewarding area of study for the fate of social programs in developing countries Through a careful examination of state endorsed family planning practices in urban and rural contexts the author shows us the pervasive high pressure persuasion of women who are encouraged to think as individual decision makers of their immediate families and their national interests But what of the other forces at work in these women's lives binding them to their extended families and to their religious identities And what of the laws that allow for polygamy and discriminate against women in marriage inheritance and as part of the workforce These forces operate against the received wisdom of the state Is the Muslim community thought to end at the borders of Egypt What about local constructions of masculinity when the state appeals to wives to decide for themselves How does widespread labor migration to foreign countries affect attitudes toward family planning How is female contraception viewed by the Islamic Brotherhood and other modern Muslim groups This book questions much that we have taken for granted and gives us grounds for reexamining our assumptions about family planning and the individual and state in developing countries such as Egypt
