How to Be a Spy, 2004-04 During World War II training in the black arts of covert operation was vital preparation for the ungentlemanly warfare waged by the Special Operations Executive SOE against Hitler's Germany and Tojo's Japan. Reproduced here is the most comprehensive training syllabus used at SOE's Special Training Schools STSs showing how agents learnt to wreak maximum destruction in occupied Europe and beyond. The training took place in country houses and other secluded locations ranging from the Highlands of Scotland to Singapore and Canada. An array of unconventional skills are covered from burglary, close combat and silent killing through to propaganda, surveillance and disguise, giving insight into the workings of one of World War II's most intriguing organizations. Denis Rigden's introduction sets the documents in its historical context and includes stories of how these lessons were put into practice on actual wartime missions. How to Become a Spy British Special Operations Executive, 2015-06-09 During World War II training in the black arts of covert operation was vital preparation for the ungentlemanly warfare waged by the Special Operations Executive SOE against Hitler's Germany and Tojo's Japan. The Mysterious Virginia Hall Claudia Friddell, 2025-06-24 How did a young lady from a wealthy family in Maryland end up as the Gestapo's most wanted spy? This YA biography of Virginia Hall, World War II's most successful female spy, will inspire reluctant readers and budding history buffs alike. Virginia Hall, known to her family as Dindy, was an athletic outdoorsy girl who dreamed of joining the foreign service and becoming an ambassador. Despite numerous setbacks including losing her leg to gangrene after an accident, Virginia never wavered in her determination to serve her country. After the outbreak of World War II a chance meeting on a train changed her life. George Bellows, an agent of the British Special Operations Executive, recruited her as one of its first women agents. Working for Allied intelligence services in France, Virginia Hall organized French resistance fighters, performed daring rescues, and provided the Allies with intelligence that was key for ousting the Nazis and earned her numerous medals including the US Army's Distinguished Service Cross. With chapters titled for each of the many aliases and nicknames used by Virginia Hall, this book takes readers through her extraordinary life and her evolution as a resistance fighter and intelligence operative. Award-winning author Claudia Friddell brings Virginia Hall's bravery, intelligence, and determination to life in this thoroughly researched and photo-filled biography, endorsed by Hall's family.

Kill the Fuhrer Denis Rigden, 2011-11-08 During the Second World War Britain's top secret Special Operations Executive plotted to assassinate Hitler. A small department of SOE known as Section X had the tantalisingly complex task of investigating how, when, and where their plan could be executed. The section also plotted the killing of Goebbels, Himmler, and other selected members of Hitler's inner circle. Only Section X and a handful of other SOE staff had any knowledge of these projects, codenamed Operation Foxley and Operation Little Foxleys. As history has shown these schemes turned out to be pipe dreams Even so Section X renamed the German Directorate in 1944 made a huge contribution to the Allied war effort through their organised sabotage and clandestine distribution of black propaganda Denis Rigden describes Section X s efforts to discover as much as possible about the intended assassination targets and questions whether a successful Operation Foxley would have helped or hindered the Allied cause Based on top secret documents and private sources and illustrated with archive photographs Kill the Fuhrer is an intriguing insight into the shadowy world of Britain s wartime secret services
