in our churches swinging from our pubs and dancing through our streets patiently waiting to be discovered appreciated saved and cherished In The Lost Folk Lally MacBeth is on a mission to breathe new life into these rapidly disappearing customs She reminds us that folk is for everyone and does not belong to an imagined halcyon past but is constantly being drawn from everyday lives and communities As well as looking at what folk customs have meant in Britain's past she shines a light on what they can and should mean as we move into the future encouraging us to use the book as an inspiration and become collectors and creators of our very own folk traditions

Ugly as Sin M. Rose, 2009 How Catholic churches are being sapped of their spiritual vitality and what you can do about it The problem with new style churches isn't just that they're ugly they actually distort the Faith and lead Catholics away from Catholicism So argues Michel S Rose in these eye opening pages which banish forever the notion that lovers of traditional style churches are motivated simply by taste or nostalgia In terms that non architects can understand and modern architects can't dismiss Rose shows that far more is at stake modern churches actually violate the three natural laws of church architecture and lead Catholics to worship quite simply a false god

The Architect, 1879 Making Amulets Christian Theodore de Bruyn, 2018-01-26 Making Amulets Christian Artefacts Scribes and Contexts examines Greek amulets with Christian elements from late antique Egypt in order to discern the processes whereby a customary practice the writing of incantations on amulets changed in an increasingly Christian context It considers how the formulation of incantations and amulets changed as the Christian church became the prevailing religious institution in Egypt in the last centuries of the Roman empire Theodore de Bruyn investigates what we can learn from incantations and amulets containing Christian elements about the cultural and social location of the people who wrote them He shows how incantations and amulets were indebted to rituals or ritualizing behaviour of Christians This study analyzes different types of amulets and the ways in which they incorporate Christian elements By comparing the formulation and writing of individual amulets that are similar to one another one can observe differences in the culture of the scribes of these materials It argues for conditioned individuality in the production of amulets On the one hand amulets manifest qualities that reflect the training and culture of the individual writer On the other hand amulets reveal that individual writers were shaped whether consciously or inadvertently by the resources they drew upon by what is called tradition in the field of religious studies
