out she's on the run from the same group he's targeted for death. The thing she didn't count on was falling in love. Honor Bound Honor takes a huge chance and flees her compound one wintry night. A genetically altered woman she has no memories from before a rebellion seven years before. Because of her enhanced physiology she finds a home working for the CIA alongside four other women just like her. There are still plenty of rules but they're different and she's figuring out how to blend in. Milton Reins burns through women and marriages. After the third one implodes he swears off hunting for a replacement. Running the CIA is a more than fulltime job. There's no time for anything else in his life which is fine until Honor comes along. Training in the gym throws their bodies together and makes him remember the feel of a woman in his arms. Milton aches for her but she's a freak, the CIA term for test tube humans designed by scientists. Honor wants Milton with every bone in her body but it's a terrible idea especially after she delves into his head and discovers his ambivalence toward her kind. Need drives them together but their differences create roadblocks every step of the way. Fueled by anger and fear she shuts him out. So what if the sex was great she's done. Or is she? Claiming Charity. Charity's luck never ran strong because her original configuration was unstable. Her handlers designed patches to fix the problem but they only made it worse. Sick to death of living under their thumb she jumps at a chance to escape. She's barely settled in as a CIA special operative, a role where she can put her augmented mind and body to use when her wobbly genetics decompensate. Tony's a freak, a genetically altered superhuman waging war against the government. He snaps up an offer of amnesty walking away from his role as a genetic researcher to work for the CIA. When Charity collapses he labors to save her life but nothing's working. In a last ditch effort he joins his mind to hers and discovers he wants her more than he's ever wanted anything. Only problem is she hates every single male like him because of how they treated women in the compounds. Charity recovers from her medical crisis but all she can think about is Tony. Furious determined to never let anyone like him near her she blocks him from her mind but he seeps back in anyway. Loving someone like Tony is a huge risk, a gamble that could throw her already volatile genes into a tailspin. Knowing all that why the hell is she considering it?
