How To Be Both A Novel:

How to be both Ali Smith, 2014-12-02 MAN BOOKER PRIZE FINALIST A novel all about art's versatility borrowing from painting's fresco technique to make an original literary double take Cements Smith's reputation as one of the finest and most innovative of our contemporary writers By some divine alchemy she is both funny and moving she combines intellectual rigor with whimsy The Los Angeles Review of Books One of the New York Times's 100 Best Books of the 21st Century How to be both is a fast moving genre bending conversation between forms times truths and fictions There's a Renaissance artist of the 1460s There's the child of a child of the 1960s Two tales of love and injustice twist into a singular yarn where time gets timeless structural gets playful knowing gets mysterious fictional gets real and all life's givens get given a second chance Passionate compassionate vitally inventive and scrupulously playful Ali Smith's novels are like nothing else A NOTE TO THE READER Who says stories reach everybody in the same order This novel can be read in two ways and the eBook provides you with both You can choose which way to read the novel by simply clicking on one of two icons CAMERA or EYES The text is exactly the same in both versions the narratives are just in a different order The eBook is produced this way so that readers can randomly have different experiences reading the same text So depending on which icon you select the book will read EYES CAMERA or CAMERA EYES Your friend may be reading it the other way around Enjoy the adventure Having both versions in the same file is intentional The Routledge Companion to Twenty-First Century Literary Fiction Daniel

O'Gorman, Robert Eaglestone, 2019-01-15 The study of contemporary fiction is a fascinating yet challenging one Contemporary fiction has immediate relevance to popular culture the news scholarly organizations and education where it is found on the syllabus in schools and universities but it also offers challenges What is contemporary How do we track cultural shifts and changes The Routledge Companion to Twenty First Century Literary Fiction takes on this challenge mapping key literary trends from the year 2000 onwards as the landscape of our century continues to take shape around us A significant and central intervention into contemporary literature this Companion offers essential coverage of writers who have risen to prominence since then such as Hari Kunzru Jennifer Egan David Mitchell Jonathan Lethem Ali Smith A L Kennedy Hilary Mantel Marilynne Robinson and Colson Whitehead Thirty eight essays by leading and emerging international scholars cover topics such as Identity including race sexuality class and religion in the twenty first century The impact of technology terrorism activism and the global economy on the modern world and modern literature The form and format of twenty first century literary fiction including analysis of established genres such as the pastoral graphic novels and comedic writing and how these have been adapted in recent years Accessible to experts students and general readers The Routledge Companion to Twenty First Century Literary Fiction provides a map of the critical issues central to the discipline as well as uncovering new perspectives and new directions for the development of the field It is essential reading for anyone interested in the past present and future of contemporary literature Diffractional Reading Kai Merten, 2021-05-27 Putting the New Materialist

figure of diffraction to use in a set of readings in which cultural texts are materially read against their contents and their themes against their readers or against other texts this volume proposes a critical intervention into the practice of reading itself In this book reading and reading methodology are probed for their materiality and re considered as being inevitably suspended between or diffracted with both matter and discourse The history of literary and cultural reading including poststructuralism and critical theory is revisited in a new light and opened up for a future in which the world and reading are no longer regarded as conveniently separate spheres but recognized as deeply entangled and intertwined Diffractive Reading ultimately represents a new reading of reading itself firstly by critiquing the distanced perspective of critical paradigms such as translation and intertextuality in which texts encountered processed or otherwise subdued secondly showing how all literary and cultural readings represent different agential cuts in the world text reader constellation which is always both discursive and material and thirdly the volume materializes dynamizes and politicizes the activity of reading by drawing attention to reading s intervention in and co creation of the world in which we live

Ethics and Aesthetics in Ali Smith's Fiction José I. Prieto-Arranz, 2025-08-04 This study offers a fresh perspective on Ali Smith s work analysing her fiction through a truly interdisciplinary lens Jos I Prieto Arranz explores Smith s engagement with contemporary issues such as digital violence disinformation pornography nationalism climate change discrimination and social fracture Simultaneously this book examines Smith s unique stylistic choices including her use of magical realism intertextuality and intermediality to reveal the intricate connection between the ethical and aesthetic dimensions of her novels Through close readings of Smith s novels from Like to Companion Piece enriched with insights from her prolific short fiction the author demonstrates how Smith constructs a text continuum revealing recurrent themes and stylistic choices that underline her firm belief in the transformative power of fiction and by extension art This book will appeal to scholars of contemporary literature art theory political science sociology and cultural studies and anyone interested in literature and social commentary

Fact and Fiction in Contemporary Narratives Jan Alber, Alice Bell, 2021-05-11 This book explores the complex interrelationship between fact and fiction in narratives of the twenty first century Current cultural theory observes a cultural shift away from postmodernism to new forms of expression Rather than a radical break from the postmodern however postmodernist techniques are repurposed to express a new sincerity a purposeful self reflexivity a contemporary sense of togetherness and an associated commitment to reality In what the editors consider to be one manifestation of this general tendency this book explores the ways in which contemporary texts across different media play with the boundary between fact and fiction This includes the examination of novels autobiography autofiction film television mockumentary digital fiction advertising campaigns and media hoaxes The chapters engage with theories of what comes after postmodernism and analyse the narratological stylistic and or semiotic devices on which such texts rely The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of English Studies

Queer and Feminist Theories of Narrative Tory

Young,2021-05-13 This book argues for the importance of narrative theories which consider gender and sexuality through the analysis of a diverse range of texts and media Classical Narratology an allegedly neutral descriptive system for features of narrative has been replaced by a diverse set of theories which are attentive to the contexts in which narratives are composed and received Issues of gender and sexuality have nevertheless been sidelined by new strands which consider for example cognitive transmedial national or historical inflections instead Through consideration of texts including the MTV series Faking It and the papers of a nineteenth century activist Queer and Feminist Theories of Narrative heeds the original call of feminist narratologists for the consideration of a broader and larger corpus of material Through analysis of issues including the popular representation of lesbian desire the queer narrative voice invisibility and power in the digital age embodiment and cognitive narratology reading and racial codes this book argues that a named strand of narrative theory which employs feminist and queer theories as intersectional vectors is contemporary and urgent The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Textual Practice

How to Read a Novel John Sutherland,2013-12-10 Do we still know how to read a novel John Sutherland Chairman of the 2005 Booker Prize Committee asks His disheartened answer is an unequivocal No But Sutherland has not given up hope With acerbic wit and intellect he traces the history of what it used to mean to be well read and tells readers what it still means today Using this delightful book as a means to an end he reminds readers how the delicate charms of fiction can be at once wonderful and inspired and infuriating On one level this is a book about novels how they work what they re about what makes them good or bad and how to talk about them At a deeper level this is a book in which one of the most intimate t te t tes is described one in which a reader meets a novel Will a great love affair begin Will the rendezvous end in disappointment Who can say In order for the relationship to take its appropriate course all the details must be clearly acknowledged and understood for their complexities plot point of view character style pace first and last sentences and even beauty Still Sutherland knows a true understanding of fiction is more than a flirtation with text and style it is a business Taking his readers on a trip to the bookshop he helps them judge a book by its cover based on design and color wondering aloud what genre might be best even going so far as to analyze one of the latest American bestsellers to further help the buying reader choose the novel that is right for him or her In a book that is as wry and humorous as it is learned and opinionated John Sutherland tells you everything you always wanted to know about how to read fiction better than you do now but were afraid to ask

Metamodernism Robin van den Akker,Alison Gibbons,, Timotheus Vermeulen,2017-11-29 Metamodernism Historicity Affect Depth brings together many of the most influential voices in the scholarly and critical debate about post postmodernism and twenty first century aesthetics arts and culture By relating cutting edge analyses of contemporary literature the visual arts and film and television to recent social technological and economic developments the volume provides both a map and an itinerary of today s metamodern cultural landscape As its organising principle the book takes Fredric Jameson s canonical arguments about the waning of historicity affect and depth in the postmodern culture of western capitalist societies in the twentieth century and re evaluates and reconceptualises these notions in a twenty first century context In doing so it shows that the contemporary moment should be regarded as a transitional period from the postmodern and into the metamodern cultural moment
