Sacred Music as Public Image for Holy Roman Emperor Ferdinand III Andrew H. Weaver, 2016-04-08 Ferdinand III played a crucial role both in helping to end the Thirty Years War and in re establishing Habsburg sovereignty within his hereditary lands and yet he remains one of the most neglected of all Habsburg emperors The underlying premise of Sacred Music as Public Image for Holy Roman Emperor Ferdinand III is that Ferdinand's accomplishments came not through diplomacy or strong leadership but primarily through a skillful manipulation of the arts through which he communicated important messages to his subjects and secured their allegiance to the Catholic Church An important locus for cultural activity at court especially as related to the Habsburgs political power was the Emperor's public image Ferdinand III offers a fascinating case study in monarchical representation for the war necessitated that he revise the image he had cultivated at the beginning of his reign that of a powerful victorious warrior Weaver argues that by focusing on the patronage of sacred music rather than the more traditional visual and theatrical means of representation Ferdinand III was able to uphold his reputation as a pious Catholic reformer and subtly revise his triumphant martial image without sacrificing his power while also achieving his Counter Reformation goal of unifying his hereditary lands under the Catholic church Drawing upon recent methodological approaches to the representation of other early modern monarchs as well as upon the theory of confessionalization this book places the sacred vocal music composed by imperial musicians into the rich cultural political and religious contexts of mid seventeenth century Central Europe The book incorporates dramatic productions such as opera oratorio and Jesuit drama as well as works in other media but the primary focus is the more numerous and more frequently performed Latin texted paraliturgical genre of the motet which has generally not been considered by scholars as a vehicle for monarchical representation By examining the representation of this little studied emperor during a crucial time in European history this book opens a window into the unique world view of the Habsburgs allowing for a previously untold narrative of the end of the Thirty Years War as seen through the eyes of this important ruling family

Lectures or Tractates on the Gospel According to Saint John Saint Augustine of Hippo, Aeterna Press, When I give heed to what we have just read from the apostolic lesson that the natural man perceiveth not the things which are of the Spirit of God and consider that in the present assembly my beloved there must of necessity be among you many natural men who know only according to the flesh and cannot yet raise themselves to spiritual understanding I am in great difficulty how as the Lord shall grant I may be able to express or in my small measure to explain what has been read from the Gospel In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God for this the natural man does not perceive

Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers Philip Schaff, Arthur Cleveland Coxe, 2007-05-01 The Council of Nicaea in 325 AD marked the beginning of a new era in Christianity For the first time doctrines were organized into a single creed The Nicene and Post Nicene Fathers did most of their writing

during and after this important event in Church history Unlike the previous era of Christian writing the Nicene and Post Nicene era is dominated by a few very important and prolific writers In Volume VIII of the 14 volume collected writings of the Nicenes and Post Nicenes first published between 1886 and 1889 readers will find Saint Augustines extensive treatment of the Psalms Augustine took this book from the Old Testament and wove into it the revelation of Jesus as the savior of humanity Through the skill of Augustine it seems as though the Psalms had been written by an oracle who knew that eventually the messiah would come and wrote to pave the way This volume is a valuable reference book for any Christian wishing to have the psalms illuminated and explained
