only and no action to speak of With so many issues small or big social or moral which one do I really believe in enough to champion What has made a difference for me and would make an impact for others I juggled with these questions often but remained a latte sipping intellectual discussing the issues affecting our world It was getting quite apparent that I just complained about those problems and each time added more empty words and skepticism One day when I was in the world bashing mood for every problem in our society my husband pointed out that I probably don't even know what I stand for He asked me to check if there was anything I truly believed in enough to do something about I paused and it didn't take me long to figure it out I was born in India and belong to the generation that had seen the shift from the joint to nuclear family structure as people moved from their rural base to urban centers for jobs Girls in joint rural families were not encouraged to go outside of the confines of their family compounds but things changed when they started moving to cities with their husbands Those women not only began to get an education but also ensured their next generation had even better opportunities Quite expectedly nothing short of revolution took place and continues to strengthen India Most well to do middle class and upwards Indian households have housekeepers They are more often than not young children from poor uneducated families who serve in the homes where children's education is a top priority These housekeepers just like the women in rural set up seldom have the opportunity for education and not much has changed for them So I started writing my thoughts and observations which took the shape of a book that I called The Fortunate Child The premise is that every child that gets the opportunity for education is a fortunate one In this work of fiction I have attempted to use a simple storyline to explore how people find courage to do what they champion Its main characters believe that education has the power to address a majority of issues in the world today Writing this book has given me the opportunity to progress from believing in this cause and doing something about it A baby step for sure but a right one I hope The Fortunate Child is a story of a girl who found the inspiration and courage to champion education for all She dreams of educating others but gets distracted by superficial social norms and her own selfish limitations until facing a tragedy that calls her to act This book explores her journey of treading the complex world of prejudice unfairness inspiration and justice      Sing me the Creation Paul Matthews, 2019-09-19 This is an inspirational workbook of creative writing exercises for poets and teachers and for all who wish to develop the life of the imagination Paul Mathews gives us permission to indulge our fantasy and then when that life is flowing provides the tools to craft it into poetry and song      Popular Mechanics , 1958-02 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it's practical DIY home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science PM is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle      Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office , 2004      The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record , 1922      British Books , 1911      Publishers' Circular , 1922      New Connect : Work Book 7 , This New Completely Revised And Homogenised Edition Of Connect For Communication Has
