Interactive Business Communities Professor Mitsuru Kodama, 2012-08-28. Innovation in technology and services was once the result of specialist knowledge developed within a single corporation; now a single focus on the development of new products and services is no longer enough. In Interactive Business Communities, Mitsuru Kodama shows how a new business approach can enable managers to access, share, and integrate diverse knowledge both inside and outside the corporation using Boundary Networks to operate across more formal organizational and knowledge boundaries at all levels. Drawing on his studies of large corporations in America and the Far East, Mitsuru shows how different companies have already started to take this path. He explains the kind of networks and strategic partnerships that have emerged and gives practical guidelines on how to begin forming in-house business communities and extending this to interactive business communities with customers and other organizations. This book is a valuable resource for business educators and researchers, and senior executives responsible for strategy, particularly in high-tech industries, will find insights and ideas to tackle 21st-century market and business discontinuities.

An Introduction to Human Resource Management Nick Wilton, 2010-09-15. This exciting new introductory text in human resource management moves beyond a prescriptive approach to provide a holistic overview of the role of HRM in its contemporary context. Acknowledging and reflecting upon key trends in HRM, the labour market, and the broader economy, the author offers critical discussion of the theoretical and practical issues surrounding HRM. Includes accessible learning features to help you best explore the material, including research ethics and international insight boxes, chapter summaries, and objectives, self-test questions, recommended reading, end of chapter case studies. An accompanying companion website www.sagepub.co.uk/wilton provides you with full-text journal articles, extended case studies, weblinks, and a glossary. The website also provides an instructor's manual, PowerPoint slides, and a multiple-choice test bank for lecturers. This book is essential reading for undergraduate, postgraduate, and MBA students, as well as those studying for their CIPD qualifications. Nick Wilton is Senior Lecturer in HRM at Bristol Business School at the University of the West of England. Well researched, well written, and clearly signposted and structured for the reader, the learning objectives at the outset of every chapter act as a clear guide for each topic explored. Additional references and further reading are also offered to the student seeking deeper knowledge. Case studies throughout the book bring the HRM theories to life and demonstrably link these with practice. Wilton's book is an extremely useful core text for students of HRM and a
