The Social Impact of Advertising

Tony Kelso,2018-09-14 Composed with a touch of the panache of a former advertising copywriter Kelso challenges readers to reflect on the social impact of advertising from multiple angles The book uniquely combines personal anecdotes with a penetrating look at some of the most critical perspectives toward the field advanced by media scholars A play on David Ogilvy s legendary Confessions of an Advertising Man the text disrupts the creative guru s account with a highly accessible critique of advertising suitable for classes in disciplines as various as cultural studies marketing media studies political science and sociology The book reflects the latest industry trends especially the migration from legacy to social media vehicles like Instagram and Snapchat Topics covered include a brief history of modern advertising in the United States advertising s influence on the so called non advertising content of the media the ideological themes advertising inadvertently delivers how advertising can privilege or marginalize various social constructions of identity the controversial practice of targeting children and how corporations often use advertising to superficially present a positive face while masking their profoundly darker sides Incorporating a media literacy approach Kelso also offers an insider s overview of the typical procedures advertising agencies take in strategizing conceptualizing and delivering campaigns

Nazi Cinema's New Women Jana F. Bruns,2009-04-27 This book examines the careers of three of Nazi cinema s preeminent movie actresses painting a unique portrait of mass entertainment and stardom under Nazi rule Bruns uses undiscovered sources and a new approach which integrates visual analysis within a thorough political and social context to trace how the Nazis tried to use films and stars to build National Socialism This analysis focuses on female stars an important but largely unexplored area because they were mostly responsible for Nazi cinema s spectacular commercial success and political failure Challenging earlier studies which view Nazi cinema as an effective propaganda instrument that helped turn Germans into devoted Aryan mothers and tough warriors the book shows that the Nazi regime s liaison with the cinema was ambivalent Films failed to disseminate a coherent political message and to Nazify German society However they helped the regime maintain power by diverting people s attention from the brutality of Hitler s rule and eventually from impending defeat 1000 and One; the Blue Book of Non-theatrical Films ,1954 To-day's Cinema News and Property Gazette ,1950 1000 and One ,1942 Bulletin University of Minnesota,1935 THE DUNGEON OF MY SOUL Miracle Kelly,2005-08-09 Terry is an innocent three year old when an older cousin sexually molests her Confused afraid and unsure where to turn Terry keeps her secret to herself reluctant to tell any of her six siblings or her parents With a military father an unhappy mother and a loving grandmother Terry grows up wondering where she fits in especially when she feels that she should have been born a boy and not a girl Her turbulent relationship with her mother only fuels her desire to withdraw and find answers to the questions that torment her In the midst of it all she strives to keep peace in a family deteriorating from divorce But the loss of her grandmother at the age of ten changes the direction of her life Terry struggles with her faith wondering how God could have taken away the most prolific person in her life She self appoints herself as protector of both younger siblings also being targeted by another relative as well Questioning when will it all end
