This is my story. This is my story of my experiences when my husband Harvey Rathey was in the last stages of Alzheimer's Disease as told through email messages to friends and family. As clearly as I could I told how I felt while Harvey and I experienced our lives as the days and months passed. I will take you on a day to day journey with me as I struggle to balance life with other family members with my husband's and my business and daily activities all the while seeking the best available care for my husband. While Alzheimer's is a tragic disease my story is not tragic. Every day brought moments of intense love times of joy and unexpected humor. In seeking to understand how I could best care for my husband I met new friends and helpers strengthened my relationship with friends and family in our isolated eastern Montana community and found a support group who will remain with me through the remainder of my life. I am aware that often my fears my frustrations and my helplessness my love colored my observations and my perceptions. I mean no offense to anyone. I appreciate the gentleness and dedication of the caregivers who worked with us. I appreciate the care and support of my friends. Green Arrow (2011-) #48 Benjamin Percy, 2016-01-06 As a result of the traumatic effects of the recent ANNUAL 1 Oliver Queen has contracted the Lukos virus.
