Rosenblum,Lily Vuong,Nathaniel DesRosiers,2014-10-01 The essays in this work examine issues related to authority identity or change in religious and philosophical traditions of the third century CE This century is of particular interest because of the political and cultural developments and conflicts that occurred during this period which in turn drastically changed the social and religious landscape of the Roman world The specific focus of this volume edited by Jordan D Rosenblum Lily Vuong and Nathaniel DesRosiers is to explore these major creative movements and to examine their strategies for developing and designating orthodoxies and orthopraxies Contributors were encouraged to analyze or construct the intersections between parallel religious and philosophical communities of the third century including points of contact either between or among Jews Christians pagans and philosophers As a result the discussions of the material contained within this volume are both comparative in nature and interdisciplinary in approach engaging participants who work in the fields of Religious Studies Philosophy History and Archaeology The overall goal was to explore dialogues between individuals or groups that illuminate the mutual competition and influence that was extant among them and to put forth a general methodological framework for the study of these ancient dialogues These religious and philosophical dialogues are not only of great interest and import in their own right but they also can help us to understand how later cultural and religious developments unfolded The Concept of Canon in the Reception of the Epistle to the Hebrews David Young, 2021-10-21 David Young argues that the reception of the Epistle to the Hebrews in early Christianity was influenced by a number of factors which had little to do with debates about an authoritative canon of Christian writings and which were primarily the concern of a relatively small group of highly educated scholars Through careful study of the quotations and reproductions of Hebrews in their own rhetorical and material context Young stresses that the concept of canon had little bearing on its early reception By exploring the transformation of authorship into authority the patristic citations of Hebrews the Epistle's position in edited collections of the Pauline corpus and the consequences of translation this complex reception history illustrates the myriad ways in which early Christians thought of and interacted with their scriptures A Companion to Greco-Roman and Late Antique Egypt Katelijn

Vandorpe, 2019-03-19 An authoritative and multidisciplinary Companion to Egypt during the Greco Roman and Late Antique period With contributions from noted authorities in the field A Companion to Greco Roman and Late Antique Egypt offers a comprehensive resource that covers almost 1000 years of Egyptian history starting with the liberation of Egypt from Persian rule by Alexander the Great in 332 BC and ending in AD 642 when Arab rule started in the Nile country The Companion takes a largely sociological perspective and includes a section on life portraits at the end of each part The theme of identity in a multicultural environment and a chapter on the quality of life of Egypt's inhabitants clearly illustrate this objective The authors put the emphasis on the changes that occurred in the Greco Roman and Late Antique periods as illustrated by such topics as Traditional religious life challenged Governing a country with a past between tradition and innovation and Creative minds in theory and praxis This important resource Discusses how Egypt became part of a globalizing world in Hellenistic Roman and Byzantine times Explores notable innovations by the Ptolemies and Romans Puts the focus on the longue dur e

Vita Daphna Arbel,2012-01-24 In Forming Femininity in Antiquity Vita Daphna Arbel investigates depictions of the emblematic Eve that are embedded in one of the most influential accounts of Adam and Eve after the Hebrew Bible namely the apocryphal Greek Life of Adam and Eve GLAE from antiquity Treating the figure of Eve as a culturally constructed representation of woman Arbel examines a crucial transformative stage in the literary and conceptual discourse of Eve with a focus on several pivotal issues that have not been looked at in previous scholarship She offers a nuanced analysis of the GLAE s multifaceted and at times contradictory portrayals of Eve and by extension women She also situates these depictions in the hybrid Greco Roman cultural world in which they emerged and discusses the extent to which they both reflect and construct contemporaneous overlapping and competing concepts and norms regarding Eve women s standing role authority and realms of experiences Finally Arbel examines how the GLAE s representations of Eve women resonate with later Jewish and Christian traditions which often characterize the figure of Eve in accordance with views that are embedded in the GLAE rather than in Genesis Sirach and Its Contexts,2021-01-25 In Sirach and Its Contexts an international cohort of

Roman Strigillated Sarcophagi Janet Huskinson, 2015-11-05 This is the first full study of Roman strigillated sarcophagi which are the largest group of decorated marble sarcophagi to survive in the city of Rome Characterized by panels of carved fluting hence the description strigillated after the curved strigil used by Roman bathers to scrape off oil and limited figure scenes they were produced from the mid second to the early fifth century AD and thus cover a critical period in Rome from empire to early Christianity Roman Strigillated Sarcophagi focuses on their rich potential as an historical source for exploring the social and cultural life of the city in the later empire The first part of the volume examines aspects of their manufacture use and viewing emphasizing distinctive features The second part looks at the figured representations carved on the sarcophagi and at their social significance and creativity concentrating on how their various arrangements allowed viewers to develop their own interpretations The subjects represented by the figures and the flexibility with which they might be read provide invaluable insights into how Romans thought about life and death during these changing times The final part of the volume surveys how later societies responded to Roman strigillated sarcophagi From as early as the fifth century AD their distinctive decoration and allusions to the Roman past made them especially attractive for reuse in particular contemporary contexts notably for elite burials and the decoration of prominent buildings The motif of curved fluting was also adopted and adapted it decorated neo classical memorials to Captain Cook Napoleon's sister in law Christine Boyer and Penelope Boothby and its use continues into this century well over one and a half millennia since it first decorated Roman sarcophagi

Religious Practices and Christianization of the Late Antique City (4th - 7th cent.), 2015-06-24 In Religious Practices and Christianization of the Late Antique City historians archaeologists and historians of religion provide studies of the phenomenon of the Christianization of the Roman Empire within the context of the transformations and eventual decline of the Greco Roman city The eleven papers brought together here aim to describe the possible links between religious but also political economic and social mutations engendered by Christianity and the evolution of the antique city Combining a multiplicity of sources and analytical approaches this book seeks to measure the impact on the city of the progressive abandonment of traditional cults to the advantage of new Christian religious practices The Specter of the Jews Ari Finkelstein,2018-11-06 In the generation after Constantine the Great elevated Christianity to a dominant position in the Roman Empire his nephew the Emperor Julian sought to reinstate the old gods to their former place of prominence in the face of intense opposition from the newly powerful Christian church In early 363 c e while living in Syrian Antioch Julian redoubled his efforts to hellenize the Roman Empire by turning to an unlikely source the Jews With a war against Persia on the horizon Julian thought it crucial that all Romans propitiate the true gods and gain their favor through proper practice To convince his people he drew on Jews whom he characterized as Judeans using their scriptures institutions practices and heroes sometimes as sources for his program and often as models to emulate In The Specter of the Jews Ari Finkelstein examines Julian s writings and views on Jews as Judeans a venerable group whose religious practices and values would help delegitimize Christianity and surprisingly shape a new imperial Hellenic pagan identity
