Dogs Jon Katz, 2006-09-26 In a nation where our love of dogs keeps growing and dog ownership has reached an all time high confusion about dogs and their behavioral problems is skyrocketing Many dogs are out of control untrained chewing up furniture taking medication for anxiety and biting millions of people a year Now in this groundbreaking new guide Jon Katz a leading authority on the human canine bond offers a powerful and practical philosophy for living with a dog from the moment we decide to get one to the sad day when one dies Conventional training methods often fail dog owners but Katz argues that we know our dogs better than anyone else possibly could and therefore we are well suited to train them It is imperative he says that we think rationally and responsibly about how we choose train and live with the dogs we love and the more we learn about ourselves the better we can recognize their wonderful animal natures Misinterpreting dogs is a profound obstacle to understanding them Katz believes that both people and dogs are unique a chow differs from a Lab just as a city dweller differs from a farmer and he describes how such individuality isn't addressed by even the best and most popular training methods Not every training theory is for everyone notes Katz but almost anyone can train a dog and live with him comfortably Katz on Dogs is filled with no nonsense advice and answers to such key questions as What kind of dog should I have Is there is a specific breed or kind of dog for my personality family or living situation What is the best way to train a dog Can I trust my vet How often and for how long can a dog be left alone Is it preferable to have only one dog or are more better What are the secrets to successful housebreaking What are my dogs thinking if anything How can I walk my dog instead of having her walk me Is it ever okay to give away a dog you love When is it time to put my dog down Katz draws from his own experience his interactions with thousands of dog owners vets breeders dog rescue workers trainers and behaviorists and he has tested his approach with volunteer dog owners around the country Their helpful and often inspiring stories illustrate how all of us can live well with our dogs You can do it Katz contends You can live a loving and harmonious life with your dog
