The Rosary Guide for Priests and People Proctor, Brother Hermenegild, 2017-07-15 THE Devotion once called The Psalter of Mary probably because it consists of 150 Aves even as the Psalter of David is composed of 150 Psalms is now known throughout the Catholic world as The Rosary According to some authors it takes its name from the Latin word Ros which means dew This may be accounted for by the words traditionally ascribed to Our Lady when making known the Devotion to her liegeman S Dominic Until now thou hast spent thy labours on a barren soil not yet watered with the dew of Divine Grace When God willed to renew the face of the earth He began by sending down the fertilising rain of the angelic salutation Therefore preach my Psalter and thou wilt obtain an abundant harvest Other writers trace the adoption of the word to the days when the beads were called The Roses of Mary The Devotion then began to be called The Rosary i e a bed or collection of roses The German Rosenkranz or Crown of Roses the French Chapelet and Rosaire and the Italian corona and Rosario all bear the same interpretation and point to the same origin Pope Leo XIII in his Encyclical of September 20 1896 writes The form of prayer we refer to has obtained the special name of The Rosary as though it represented by its arrangement the sweetness of roses and the charm of a garland This is most fitting for a method of venerating the Virgin who is rightly styled the Mystical Rose of Paradise and who as Queen of the Universe shines therein with a crown of stars So that by its very name it appears to foreshadow and be an augury of the joys and garlands of heaven offered by her to those who are devoted to her Whatever the origin of the word it is now consecrated to the Devotion which is inseparably associated with S Dominic s name Without special leave of the Holy See it may be applied to no other devotion or form of prayer in the Church Beads may be used in counting the prescribed prayers of other pious exercises but they are neither rosaries nor rosary beads They are Chapelets bead strings counting beads or what you will but they are not The Rosary This was decided by Pope Benedict XIII in his Constitution Pretiosus nax by Pope Alexander VII in the Constitution In supremo of May 28 1664 Quoting this latter decision and another of Clement XI Benedict XIV Writes Lest this Devotion of the Rosary languish at the prayer of the actual Procurator General of the Order of Preachers we renew and confirm the decisions which were given respecting a rosary commonly called the seraphic rosary and another rosary in honour of the Most Holy Trinity and we extend the prohibition to all rosaries newly invented or which may be invented without the special and previous permission of the Holy See whereby the aforesaid authentic rosary sacred to God and the Blessed Virgin Mary may to the prejudice of the faithful be set aside Originally published in 1901
