A Book of Cambridge Verse (Classic Reprint) Ernest Edward Kellett, 2018-02-02 Excerpt from A Book of Cambridge Verse Nevertheless after all deductions have been made how much true poetry is yet left He must be hard to please who cannot find intense enjoyment in the Eclogues of Phineas Fletcher in Cowley s epitaph on Harvey in the Miltonic stanzas of Gray s Installation Ode in a score of other pieces grave quaint or classical in their allusive ness of phrasing Especially grateful must we be to the number of poets of exquisite feeling and easy mastery of form who during the last fifty or sixty years have enriched the language with delicate and elegant verse from which it has been only too difficult to choose because its quantity is so great and its merit so even Of this we trust we have given a tolerably adequate selection but it would have been easy to multiply it fourfold About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com

The Hen at Work Ernest Cobb, 2015-08-05 Excerpt from The Hen at Work: A Brief Manual of Home Poultry Culture. In every household, no matter how economical the housewife, there is a certain amount of table scraps and kitchen waste which has feeding value but which, if not fed, finds its way into the garbage pail. Poultry is the only class of domestic animals which is suitable for converting this waste material right where it is produced in the city into wholesome and nutritious food in the form of eggs and poultry meat. Each hen in her pullet year should produce ten dozen eggs. The average size of the back yard flock should be at least ten hens. Thus each flock would produce in a year 100 dozen of eggs which, at the conservative value of 25 cents a dozen, would be worth 25.00. Farm Poultry (Classic Reprint) F. C. Elford, 2016-12-06. Excerpt from Farm Poultry. To meet the ever-increasing demand for information, we are issuing this bulletin. We hope it will cover the more important points and give a working idea of the things we find necessary for the successful raising of poultry in this Province. We pride ourselves in the fact that the commercial part of our poultry plant at Macdonald College is just an enlargement of an equipment that it is possible for the poorest farmer in Quebec to duplicate.
