The Making of Anti-Muslim Protest Joel Busher, 2015-10-23 Activism in any social movement group is as Deborah Gould observes a project of collective world making It is about changing the world out there by influencing policy and public opinion but is also about the way it transforms the lives of participants activists generate new identities cultures social ties rich and varied emotional experiences and interpretations of the world around them Movements are more likely to be able to attract and sustain support when as projects of collective world making they feel compelling to activists and would be activists In this book Busher explores what has made activism in the English Defence League EDL an anti Muslim protest movement that has staged demonstrations across the UK since 2009 so compelling to those who have chosen to march under its banner Based on sixteen months of overt observation with grassroots activists he explores how people became involved with the group how they forged and intensified belief in the EDL cause how they negotiated accusations that they were just another racist far right group and how grassroots EDL activism began to unravel during the course of 2011 but did not do so altogether Providing a fresh insight as to how contemporary anti minority protest movements work on the inside this book will be of interest to students scholars and activists working in the areas of British politics extremism social movements community relations and current affairs more generally

A Killing Notion Melissa Bourbon, 2014-04-01 Harlow Jane Cassidy is swamped with homecoming couture requests If only she didn't have to help solve a murder she might get the gowns off the dress forms Harlow is doing everything she can to expand her dressmaking business Buttons Bows without letting clients know about her secret charm When she has a chance to create homecoming dresses with a local charity and handmade mums for several high school girls including Gracie whose father Will has mended Harlow's heart she is ready to use her magical talents for a great cause But when Gracie's date for the dance is accused of murder Harlow knows things won't be back on course until she helps Gracie clear the football player's name If Harlow can't patch up this mess before the big game her business and her love life might be permanently benched INCLUDES SEWING TIPS

Peace in These Troubled Times Steven Leslie Golding, 2020-08-10 PEACE IN THESE TROUBLED TIMES I hope that reading this book will give you some inspiration to do some writing yourselves I have aimed it at people who suffer mental health issues but I would like to think that anybody whatever their background will find it of some interest too My interest of English fairy folklore and pagan Britain I find it truly fascinating Writing this short story have really helped me think about the kind of world and what path I would like to take in the future A nature based religion is the way forward in my opinion I would like to think that in the near future all religions of the world could live in peace as one There would be no more wars and bloodshed We would all live in peace We can only live in hope Blessed be Jam and Roses Mary Gibson,2014-11-01 The poignant and powerful second novel from the bestselling author of Custard Tarts and Broken Hearts London 1923 Bermondsey is the larder of London with its bustling docks spice mill tannery and factories Milly Colman knows she s lucky Working at Southwell s jam factory all week means she can have a pay packet and a laugh with her mates come Saturday It s a welcome escape from home where Milly must protect her mother and sisters from her father s violent temper When autumn comes hop picking in Kent gives all the Colman women a longed for respite But it is there on one golden September night that Milly makes the mistake of her life and finds her courage and strength tested as never before PRAISE FOR JAM AND ROSES This book is raw and powerful and a fabulous read This is where girl power came from women like Milly and her family girls who did not even have the vote at this time This book is also a history lesson telling the story of the general strike Mrs H Amazon reviewer Well written with pace engaging characters a good narrative and some suspense A real authentic tone too the central characters reminded me of the formidable spirit of my mother grandmothers who lived through and survived these demanding times Fredmart Amazon reviewer A fantastic read I was hooked from the first paragraph Mary Gibson is a fabulous and talented writer A book you can t put down but yet you want to find out the ending without wanting the book to finish Well done and thank you Can t wait to read the next book Michelle Thompson Amazon reviewer If you enjoy post war stories of women s hardship based in london then this is the book to read It kept me enthralled from the start Highly recommended Shell R Amazon reviewer So full of emotion and tragedies but also humour happiness love and hate Patsy Amazon reviewer Literature and the Senses Annette Kern-Stähler,Elizabeth Robertson,2023-07-06 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Academic and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Literature and the Senses critically probes the role of literature in capturing and scrutinizing sensory perception Organized around the five traditional senses followed by a section on multisensoriality the collection facilitates a dialogue between scholars working on literature written from the Middle Ages to the present day The contributors engage with a variety of theorists from Maurice Merleau Ponty to Michel Serres to Jean Luc Nancy to foreground the distinctive means by which literary texts engage with open up or make uncertain dominant views of the nature of perception Considering the ways in which literary texts intersect with and diverge from scientific epistemological and philosophical perspectives these essays explore a wide variety of literary moments of sensation including the interspecies exchange of a look between a swan and a young Indigenous Australian girl the sound of bees as captured in an early modern poem the noxious smell of the Great Stink that recurs in the Victorian novel the taste of an eggplant registered in a poetic performance tactile gestures in medieval romance and the representation of a world in which the interdependence of human beings with the purple hibiscus plant is experienced through all five senses The collection builds upon and breaks new ground in the field of sensory studies focusing on what makes literature especially suitable to engaging with contributing to and challenging our perennial understandings of the senses
