Homo Sapiens An Appraisal Of Modern Humans:

Homo Sapiens Rajan Jaisinghani, 2015 Origins of Anatomically Modern Humans Doris V. Nitecki, Matthew H. Nitecki, 2013-11-11 This volume is based on the Field Museum of Natural History Spring Systematics Symposium held in Chicago on May 11 1991 The financial support of Ray and Jean Auel and of the Field Museum is gratefully acknowledged When we teach or write we present only those elements that support our arguments We avoid all weak points of our debate and all the uncertainties of our models Thus we offer hypotheses as facts Multiauthored books like ours which simultaneously advocate and question diverse views avoid the pitfalls and lessen the impact of indoctrination In this volume we analyze the anthropological and biological disagreements and the positions taken on the origins of modern humans point out difficulties with the interpretations and suggest that the concept of the human origin can be explained only when we first attempt to define Homo sapiens sapiens One of the major controversies in physical anthropology concerns the geographic origin of anatomically modern humans It is undisputed due to the extensive research of the Leakeys and their colleagues that the family Hominidae originated in Africa but the geographic origin of Homo sapiens sapiens is less concretely accepted Two schools of thought exist on this topic The Emergence of Modern Humans Erik Trinkaus, 1989 Emergence and Diversity of Modern Human Behavior in Paleolithic Asia Yousuke Kaifu, Masami Izuhara, Ted Goebel, Hiroyuki Sato, Akira Ono, 2014-12-19 Despite the obvious geographic importance of eastern Asia in human migration its discussion in the context of the emergence and dispersal of modern humans has been rare Emergence and Diversity of Modern Human Behavior in Paleolithic Asia focuses long overdue scholarly attention on this under studied area of the world Arising from a 2011 symposium sponsored by the National Museum of Nature and Science in Tokyo this book gathers the work of archaeologists from the Pacific Rim of Asia Australia and North America to address the relative lack of attention given to the emergence of modern human behavior as manifested in Asia during the worldwide dispersal from Africa The Political Economy of Contemporary Human Civilisation, Volume I Sangaralingam Ramesh, 2025-03-21 This book the first of two volumes examines the evolution of humanity and development global economic systems to provide insight into the advances and challenges they have created By placing modern technology and global crises within the context of long term human development it evaluates the threat of climate change on future generations by showing how past civilizations have survived and succumbed to climate events A similar approach is taken with migration where the current migration crisis is contrasted against historic migration patterns The potential for artificial intelligence quantum computing nuclear fusion and biotechnology to combat these challenges as well as tackle poverty and inequality are also discussed This book highlights the consequences of human cognition and the constant desire for economic growth and evaluates whether they have been a net positive for human society It will be of interest to students and researchers working on political economy and global challenges Southern Asia, Australia, and the Search for Human Origins Robin Dennell, Martin Porr, 2014-02-24 This is the first book to focus on the role of Southern Asia and Australia in our understanding of modern human origins and the expansion of Homo sapiens between East Africa and Australia before 30 000 years ago With contributions from leading experts that take into account the latest archaeological evidence from India and Southeast Asia this volume critically reviews current models of the timing and character of the spread of modern humans out of Africa It also demonstrates that the evidence from Australasia should receive much wider and more serious consideration in its own right if we want to understand how our species achieved its global distribution Critically examining the Out of Africa model this book emphasises the context and variability of the global evidence in the search for human origins

Wiley-Blackwell Encyclopedia of Human Evolution Bernard

Wood,2011-03-31 This comprehensive A to Z encyclopedia provides extensive coverage of important scientific terms related to improving our understanding of how we evolved Specifically the 5 000 entries in this two volume set cover evidence and methods used to investigate the relationships among the living great apes evidence about what makes the behavior of modern humans distinctive and evidence about the evolutionary history of that distinctiveness as well as information about modern methods used to trace the recent evolutionary history of modern human populations This text provides a resource for everyone studying the emergence of Homo sapiens Visit the companion site http://www.woodhumanevolution.com/target_blank to browse additional references and updates from this comprehensive encyclopedia

Conceptual Issues in Modern Human Origins Research Geoffrey A. Clark,Catherine M. Willermet, While those who study human origins now agree that the evolution of modern human form extends back much further in time than the evolution of modern human behavior they disagree sharply as to how to interpret the substantive data Two fundamentally incommensurate interpretations of our origins the Replacement camp and the Continuity camp have now emerged out of pre existing models and theories that go back to the last quarter of the 19th century This book contends that these positions are based on radically different biases and assumptions about what the remote human past was like The purpose of this volume is to examine those conceptual differences not to arrive at a consensus but rather to explore the reasons why a consensus might never be possible

Ancient Pakistan - An Archaeological History Mukhtar Ahmed,2014-05-29 Ancient Pakistan An Archaeological History deals with the prehistory of Pakistan from the Stone Age to the end of the Indus Civilization This particular volume The Stone Age concerns with the first appearance of man in northern Pakistan more than a million years ago and traces his cultural history up to the emergence of agriculture and sedentary living in this region The book is written for students of ancient history anthropology and archaeology The material is generously illustrated with a large number of maps tables drawings and colored photographs Each Section is provided with extensive references to the text and a comprehensive bibliography is provided for those who want to dig deeper into the subject Although the book primarily deals with the Greater Indus Valley its scope is much wider the subject has been discussed in context with the paleolithic of India Central Asia and Iran The story of human evolution provides a constant background

Major Events in the History of Life J. William Schopf, 1992 Major Events in the History of Life present six chapters that summarize our understanding of crucial events that shaped the development of the earth's environment and the course of biological evolution over some four billion years of geological time The subjects are covered by acknowledged leaders in their fields span an enormous sweep of biologic history from the formation of planet Earth and the origin of living systems to our earliest records of human activity Several chapters present new data and new syntheses or summarized results of new types of analysis material not usually available in current college textbooks

Caste-based Discrimination in International Human Rights Law David Keane, 2016-04-08 With particular focus on the Hindu caste system this book represents a comprehensive analysis of the elimination of all forms of racial discrimination in international law It evaluates the strategies that have informed the work of the United Nations in this area mapping a new path that moves from standard setting to implementation Combining legal analysis with the meaning and origin of caste it explores the remedies human rights law can propose towards the prohibition of caste based discrimination and the abolition of the caste system itself The book provides a benchmark on the achievements of the international community in combating all forms of racial discrimination and the policies that must inform future measures With its clear and accessible style this volume will be of interest to scholars of law and human rights as well as policy makers and practitioners working in this area

The Evolution of Human Wisdom Celia Deane-Drummond, Agustín Fuentes, 2017-10-18 This volume addresses key questions about the puzzle of human origins by focusing on a topic that is largely unexplored thus far namely the evolution of human wisdom How can we best understand the human capacity for wisdom where did it come from and how did it emerge It explores lines of convergence and divergence between Christian theology and evolutionary anthropology in its search to identify different aspects of wisdom Critical to this discussion are the philosophical difficulties that arise when two very different methodological approaches to the manner of humans becoming wise are brought together The relative importance and significance of human language is another area of intense debate in defining the meaning of wisdom and its expression How far and to what extent does a theologically informed wisdom discourse push evolutionary anthropology to formulate new questions and vice versa This volume shows that there is no simple consonance between evolutionary anthropology and theology Yet each discipline has much to learn from the other the authors are in agreement that even in the midst of an awareness of dissonance and some tension there can still be mutual respect The goal of this book is to begin to develop a trans disciplinary approach to the evolution of human wisdom where each discipline is challenged to ask questions in a new way This volume tackles the relationship between theology and science in a fresh way by focusing on a specific theme wisdom that is equally generative for both theology and evolutionary anthropology

The Evolution of Modern Human Diversity Marta Mirazón Lahr, 1996-05-30 Investigates the two main theories of how and where humans evolved

Handbook of Pleistocene Archaeology of Africa Amanuel Beyin, David K. Wright, Jayne Wilkins, Deborah I. Olszewski, 2023-08-17 This handbook showcases an Africa wide compendium of Stone Age archaeological sites and methodological advances that have improved our understanding of hominin lifeways and biogeography in the continent The focal time spans the Pleistocene Epoch c 2 5 million 11 700 years ago during which important human traits such as obligate bipedalism that freed the hands to engage in creative activities a large brain relative to body size language and social complexity developed in the general forms that they are found today The handbook is the first of its kind and it is expected to play a significant role in human evolutionary research by Collating the African Stone Age record which exists in a fragmented state along the lines of national boundaries and colonial experiences Showcasing emerging conceptual and methodological advances in African Pleistocene archaeology Providing reference datasets for teaching and researching African prehistory Making Africa's Stone Age record accessible to researchers and students based in Africa who may not have access to journal publications where most new field discoveries are published The Handbook features 128 chapters of which 116 are site entries grouped by the host countries and presented in an alphabetical order A number of those site related entries examine multiple archaeological localities lumped under specific projects or study areas The rest of the contributions deal with methodological topics such as luminescence and radiocarbon dating field data recovery lithic analysis micromorphology and hominin fossil and zooarchaeological records of Pleistocene Africa The introductory chapter provides an historical overview of the development of Stone Age Paleolithic archaeology in Africa beginning in the mid 19th century and paleoenvironmental and chronological frameworks commonly used to structure the continent's Pleistocene record By making a good amount of African Stone Age literature accessible to researchers and the public we wish to promote interest in human evolutionary research in the continent and elsewhere Awarded the 2025 The Best Book Award by The Society of Africanist Archaeologists

Processes in Human Evolution Francisco J. Ayala, Camilo J. Cela-Conde, 2017-03-01 The discoveries of the last decade have brought about a completely revised understanding of human evolution due to the recent advances in genetics palaeontology ecology archaeology geography and climate science Written by two leading authorities in the fields of physical anthropology and molecular evolution Processes in Human Evolution presents a reconsidered overview of hominid evolution synthesising data and approaches from a range of inter disciplinary fields The authors pay particular attention to population migrations since these are crucial in understanding the origin and dispersion of the different genera and species in each continent and to the emergence of the lithic cultures and their impact on the evolution of cognitive capacities Processes in Human Evolution is intended as a primary textbook for university courses on human evolution and may also be used as supplementary reading in advanced undergraduate and graduate courses It is also suitable for a more general audience seeking a readable but up to date and inclusive treatment of human origins and evolution

The Primacy of Movement Maxine Sheets-Johnstone, 2011 This expanded second edition carries forward the initial insights into the biological and existential significances of animation by taking contemporary research findings in cognitive science and philosophy and in neuroscience into critical and constructive account It first takes affectivity as its focal point elucidating it within both an enactive and qualitative affective kinetic dynamic It follows through with a thoroughgoing interdisciplinary inquiry into movement from three perspectives mind brain and the conceptually reciprocal realities of receptivity and responsivity as set forth in phenomenology and evolutionary biology respectively It ends with a substantive afterword on kinesthesia pointing up the incontrovertible significance of the faculty to cognition and affectivity Series A

The Prehistoric Hunter-Gatherers of South-Eastern Europe Aitor Ruiz-Redondo, William Davies, 2023-11-03 Situating the South Eastern European region at the crossroads between the Near East and the rest of Europe The Prehistoric Hunter Gatherers of South Eastern Europe provides an interdisciplinary exploration of the Balkan record of prehistoric foragers in terms of dispersal ecologies evolution and symbolism

The Descent of Madness

Jonathan Burns, 2007-03-12 Drawing on evidence from across the behavioural and natural sciences this book advances a radical new hypothesis that madness exists as a costly consequence of the evolution of a sophisticated social brain in Homo sapiens Having explained the rationale for an evolutionary approach to psychosis the author makes a case for psychotic illness in our living ape relatives as well as in human ancestors He then reviews existing evolutionary theories of psychosis before introducing his own thesis that the same genes causing madness are responsible for the evolution of our highly social brain Jonathan Burns novel Darwinian analysis of the importance of psychosis for human survival provides some meaning for this form of suffering It also spurs us to a renewed commitment to changing our societies in a way that allows the mentally ill the opportunity of living The Descent of Madness will be of interest to those in the fields of psychiatry psychology sociology and anthropology and is also accessible to the general reader
