Clinician's Handbook of Child Behavioral Assessment Michel Hersen, 2011-04-28 Given the vast amount of research related to behavioral assessment it is difficult for clinicians to keep abreast of new developments In recent years there have been advances in assessment case conceptualization treatment planning treatment strategies for specific disorders and considerations of new ethical and legal issues Keeping track of advances requires monitoring diverse resources limited to specific disorders many of which give short shrift to child assessment overlooking developmental considerations Much of the existing literature is either theoretical research in focus or clinical in nature Nowhere are the various aspects of child behavioral assessment placed in a comprehensive research clinical context nor is there much integration as to conceptualization and treatment planning The Clinician's Handbook of Child Behavioral Assessment was created to fill this gap summarizing critical information for child behavioral assessment in a single source The Clinician's Handbook of Child Behavioral Assessment provides a single source for understanding new developments in this field cutting across strategies techniques and disorders Assessment strategies are presented in context with the research behind those strategies along with discussions of clinical utility and how assessment and conceptualization fit in with treatment planning The volume is organized in three sections beginning with general issues followed by evaluations of specific disorders and problems and closing with special issues To ensure cross chapter consistency in the coverage of disorders these chapters are formatted to contain an introduction assessment strategies research basis clinical utility conceptualization and treatment planning a case study and summary Special issue coverage includes child abuse assessment classroom assessment behavioral neuropsychology academic skills problems and ethical legal issues Suitable for beginning and established clinicians in practice this handbook will provide a ready reference toward effective child behavioral assessment

How to Help Students with AD/HD Succeed--in School and in Life Deborah H. Gordon, 2001-11 Linda L Ramer has worked with children with AD/HD day in and day out for over ten years In this book she explains why students parents and educators must all work together for children with AD/HD to succeed Then she tells you how using stories about her students to illustrate and explain You will learn The ABC's of AD/HD How AD/HD is recognized diagnosed and treated Different forms and coexisting conditions The Hidden Treasures positive aspects of AD/HD Linda's program goals and details Building self esteem What students learn about AD/HD Empowerment How students learn to control behavior and advocate with teachers for classroom accommodations without making excuses for their shortcomings Academic success How students learn study skills organizational skills time management skills and skills to structure their environment Improving citizenship and social success Especially for parents Working effectively with teachers Understanding your rights Providing structure to help children organize their time space and behavior Avoiding pitfalls and coping with problems Especially for teachers Gaining parents trust and working positively with them Handling academic and behavioral problems Nine common problem areas and accommodations that help children overcome them How to start an AD HD program in your own school www HelpforADHD com Developing Trauma-Informed Teachers Ofelia Schepers,Megan Brennan,Philip E. Bernhardt,2023-01-01 The vision and development of this edited text are driven by a deep desire to ensure that teacher candidates are thoughtfully prepared to more fully address students needs and create classroom environments that are safe for students and teachers Specifically this text will provide an understanding of how educator preparation programs are providing teacher candidates with the knowledge and skills to effectively utilize an asset based approach to foster resiliency skills that support P 12 students who have or are experiencing trauma This text considers how programs are developing equity focused content curriculum pedagogy to ensure teacher candidates can integrate trauma informed practices as well as develop their own resiliency skills This resource highlights important and relevant tools strategies and approaches for preparing future teachers to implement traumainformed practices within their classrooms In recent years much attention and resources focused on preparing teachers to more comprehensively address acknowledge and understand childhood trauma and the impact it has on students lives inside and outside of the classroom This text will be of interest to all those working in institutes of higher education alternative licensure programs and organizations public schools and districts involved with the preparation of teachers and or professional development of in service educators It has the potential to serve as a catalyst for teacher preparation programs to more intentionally integrate trauma informed practices in meaningful ways and contribute to a glaring gap within the literature focused on the systematic ways in which childhood trauma and resiliency development are being addressed in the preparation of teachers
