The company originally published the map in 1996      Map Skills - The World (ENHANCED eBook) R. Scott House,Patti M.
House,2010-09-01 Explore the varied features of the world while reinforcing basic map reading skills Sixteen student pages and accompanying blackline and full color maps coordinate to provide a relational study of the elevation vegetation products population and peoples of the world Full color maps are provided as transparencies for print books and PowerPoint slides for eBooks Student pages challenge students to combine maps and additional resources in order to answer questions and make judgments Question topics follow the Five Themes of Geography as outlined by the National Geographic Society finding absolute and relative locations on a map relating physical and human characteristics to an area understanding human relationships to the environment tracing movement of peoples and goods throughout an area and organizing countries and continents into regions for detailed study      World Studies Heidi Hayes Jacobs,Michal L. LeVasseur,2005      Having Fun with Maps and Globes Abraham Resnick,2000-05-26 The primary purpose of his handbook is to provide educators with a variety of proven activities to make learning map and globe skills both enjoyable and meaningful for your students The activities which include cross curriculum can be used with multiple grade levels small groups or individually Having Fun with Maps and globes is organized into six parts Part One introduces you to the basic goals of a Map and Globe Skills Program and concludes with some general Tips for Teachers Part Two provides activities for teaching the basic concepts of maps and globes Because the ability to read and make maps involves many individual skills the activities in this section are organized into several categories or subsets of skills For each subset several fully developed activities are presented along with a grab bag of additional activities that can be used in a stand alone map and globe unit or to reinforce general map skills Because map and globe skills support other curriculum areas besides social studies Part Three provides activities organized by subject area This allows you to locate the subject you are teaching and access several related map and globe skill activities Such cross curriculum tasks will reinforce art math reading science language and thinking skills For easy access all student activity sheets called Supplements in this manual are located in Part Four of the handbook Part Five lists currently available resources for teachers and students Beyond the standard lists of print materials the author has provided sources for multimedia kits and computer software that will enrich anyone s program An appendix which includes map masters a glossary of terms and comparison charts concludes the handbook Although these materials are mentioned in various activities throughout the book here they are more accessible as a reference and as a source from which to draw in developing your own lessons or an entire school program Because of the wide range of resources Having Fun with Maps and Globes provides this handbook is a wonderful companion to the supplementary materials you presently use in your school curriculum
