York Mystery Cycle and the Worship of the City Pamela M. King, 2006 An investigation into the connections between the York Plays religious observance and the role played by the city itself WINNER of the 2007 David Bevington Prize The York Play is the earliest near complete English civic mystery cycle It evolved constantly throughout its long performance history but the text that was recorded in the York Register shows that it was already a mature and elaborate civic festival by the time it was written down This study uncovers the Cycle s connection with worship in York in the sense both of devotional practice and of civic honour informing a particular period in the cultural history of the city The pageants in the Register show in their different ways how the community which devised and performed the Cycle regarded the celebration of the great summer feast of Corpus Christi Moreover the principles of selection that give the Cycle its structure reflect the broader pattern of the liturgical calendar with its other feasts and fasts The Cycle bears witness not only to the practices of religious observance in York but also to the ecclesiastical politics in which the city was caught up from the very beginning of the fifteenth century

Oxford History of Poetry in English Helen Cooper, Robert R. expression Middle English poetry reflects the influence of multiple contexts history social institutions manuscript production old and new models of versification medieval poetic theory and the other literary languages of England It thus emphasizes the aesthetic imaginative treatment of new and received materials by medieval writers and the formal craft required for their verse Individual chapters treat the representation of national history and mythology contemporary issues and the shared doctrine and learning provided by sacred and secular sources including the Bible Throughout the period lyric and romance figure prominently as genres and poetic modes while some works hover enticingly on the boundary of genre and discursive forms The volume ends with chapters on the major writers of the late fourteenth century Langland the Gawain poet Chaucer and Gower and with a look forward to the reception of something like a national literary tradition in fifteenth century literary culture
