The Modern Language Review John George Robertson, Charles Jasper Sisson, 1911 Each number includes the section Reviews Bibliography of Medieval Drama Carl J. Stratman, 2023-11-15 The study of medieval drama has long been hindered by the absence of a centralized comprehensive bibliography that accommodates the wide ranging interests of scholars and students Existing references are often too narrow focusing exclusively on specific genres like mysteries and miracles or too limited in the number of entries While resources such as Wells's Manual provide some guidance their segmented supplements and restricted scope fall short of addressing the broader needs of the field This bibliography seeks to fill that gap by encompassing a wide range of materials including liturgical plays mysteries miracles moralities and interludes while excluding formal comedies tragedies and masques By incorporating not only English drama but also influential works from France Germany Italy and Spain the bibliography underscores the interconnectedness of medieval theatrical traditions across Europe Organized into twelve main divisions with detailed subdivisions the bibliography is designed for ease of use and practicality It includes general critical studies individual play editions and analyses of specific works all listed alphabetically for quick reference Each entry provides comprehensive bibliographic details including author names full titles publication information and pagination Starred entries highlight particularly authoritative works and cross references link materials spanning multiple categories Special attention is given to unique sections such as the comprehensive treatment of Everyman the rarely addressed writings of Hrotswitha and anthologies of cycle plays Additional resources include entries for unpublished masters and doctoral dissertations critical book reviews and Festschriften offering a multidimensional view of medieval drama scholarship To further assist researchers the bibliography incorporates practical tools such as library location symbols a subject indexing system for articles within books and an appendix that cross references plays with their respective anthologies Manuscripts are cataloged wherever possible and periodical articles are represented using standard or custom symbols for efficient reference Appendices also provide information on library holdings of serial publications and trace plays across various collections This detailed organization ensures that the bibliography serves as both a foundational resource for beginners and an advanced tool for seasoned scholars encouraging deeper exploration and new contributions to the study of medieval drama This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1954 Bibliography of Medieval Drama , Sexuality in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Times Albrecht Classen, 2008-12-10 Sexuality is one of the most influential factors in human life The responses to and reflections upon the manifestations of sexuality provide fascinating insights into fundamental aspects of medieval and early modern culture This interdisciplinary volume with articles written by social historians literary historians musicologists art historians and historians of religion and mental ity demonstrates how fruitful collaborative efforts can be in the exploration of essential features of human society Practically every aspect of culture both in the Middle Ages and the early modern age was influenced and determined by sexuality which hardly ever surfaces simply characterized by prurient interests The treatment of sexuality in literature chronicles music art legal documents and in scientific texts illuminates central concerns anxieties tensions needs fears and problems in human society throughout times

Williams, 2023-12-22 Haverford Essays, 2018-02-05 Excerpt from Haverford Essays Studies in Modern Literature Prepared by Some Former Pupils of Professor Francis B Gummere In Honor of the Completion of the Twentieth Year of His Teaching in Haverford College I make these criticisms not in a carping spirit but only to justify my present attempt to analyze the logic Of argument anew About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Kuno Francke's Edition of the German Classics (1913-15) Jeffrey L. Sammons, 2009 The twenty volume edition of The German Classics Masterpieces of German Literature Translated into English was edited by Kuno Francke of Harvard 1855 1930 the most prestigious professor of German in America at the time While it bears the imprint dates 1913 and 1914 it was not completed until mid 1915 just in time for the submarine sinking of the passenger liner Lusitania in May of that year The edition was publicized with great fanfare and was well received at first but with the outbreak of the European war in 1914 and the entry of the United States into it in 1917 American sentiment turned against all things German The reviews became hostile the edition was nearly pulped its publisher went bankrupt and Francke felt obliged to resign his Harvard professorship Kuno Francke s Edition of The German Classics 1913 15 describes the origins of the edition recounts the careers of the editors and some fifty professional contributors seeks to identify approximately 115 translators and comments on the nearly 500 illustrations mostly German art of the nineteenth century This book also introduces the selections from the 114 featured authors almost a third of whom were still alive at the time of publication and evaluates the critical commentary The edition emerges from the study as a laboratory of the high prestige of German literature and culture in the United States before it fell into permanent decline at the time of World War I

Ipomedon, 2025-05-13 The first modern English translation of Hugh of Rhuddlan s Ipomedon The Anglo Norman Ipomedon composed in the late twelfth century by Hugh of Rhuddlan is a witty notoriously scabrous romance set in the Mediterranean In a version of the Fair Unknown motif the work's eponymous hero the son of the king of Apulia falls in love with the queen of Calabria conceals his identity and serves in her retinue He undertakes a number of adventures including participating in a three day tournament each day under different colours before revealing his true identity and marrying her Alert to the conventions of Arthurian romance from which it pointedly takes ironic distance Ipomedon invokes the Continental romances and antiquity in its protagonists names and in its surprising claim to be the source material for the chronologically earlier Roman de Thes It was popular amongst its contemporary readers being translated later into three different Middle English versions This book offers the first modern English translation it also provides explanatory notes and a full introduction discussing the author its audience dating sources and analogues themes humour and narrative style It will make this important text of great interest to medieval romance studies available to a wider audience

Chrétien de Troyes Douglas Kelly, 2002 The supplement to the 1976 original bibliography reflects the expanding scope of modern Chrétien studies including items from around the world with the assistance of an international team of scholars The Supplement builds on and completes the Chrétien de Troyes Bibliography first published in 1976 Together the two volumes constitute the fullest and most complete bibliographical source now available on this major medieval author Chrétien de Troyes bequeathed a corpus of highly original and widely influential Arthurian romances Indeed his direct or indirect influence continued throughout the middle ages and beyond into modern times The Bibliography permits students of medieval romance to quickly identify the areas in which Chrétien scholarship has been active Items are listed under twenty two topics with numerous sub sections under each topic and cross references for items that treat more than one of the topics The broad geographic and linguistic scope of modern Chrétien studies is evident in items not only from western Europe and North America but also from the growing body of medieval scholarship in eastern Europe Asia Africa South America and Australasia To ensure accuracy and completeness the editor has been assisted by scholars competent in the many languages in which Chrétien studies are now published most notably in Japanese Welsh Rumanian Hungarian and Polish as well as by other scholars and librarians who generously provided assistance and information in finding items difficult to access

Rhetorics of Bodily Disease and Health in Medieval and Early Modern England Jennifer C. Vaught, 2016-04-08 Susan Sontag in Illness as Metaphor and AIDS and Its Metaphors points to the vital connection between metaphors and bodily illnesses though her analyses deal mainly with modern literary works This collection of essays examines the vast extent to which rhetorical figures related to sickness and health metaphor simile pun analogy symbol personification allegory oxymoron and metonymy inform medieval and early modern literature religion science and medicine in England and its surrounding European context In keeping with the critical trend over the past decade to foreground the matter of the body and the emotions these essays track the development of sustained nuanced rhetorics of bodily disease and health physical emotional and spiritual The contributors to this collection approach their intriguing subjects from a wide range of timely theoretical and interdisciplinary perspectives including the philosophy of language semiotics and linguistics ecology women s and gender studies religion and the history of medicine The essays focus on works by Dante Chaucer Spenser Shakespeare Donne and Milton among others the genres of epic lyric satire drama and the sermon and cultural history artifacts such as medieval anatomies the arithmetic of plague bills of mortality meteorology and medical guides for healthy regimens The Complete Works of Geoffrey Chaucer ,1933 Anthropocene Ecologies of Food Simon C. Estok,S. Susan Deborah,Rayson K. Alex,2022-06-22 Anthropocene Ecologies of Food provides a detailed exploration of cross cultural aspects of food production culinary practices and their ecological underpinning in culture The authors draw connections between humans and the entire process of global food production focusing on the broad implications these processes have within the geographical and cultural context of India Each chapter analyzes and critiques existing agricultural food practices and representations of aspects of food through various media such as film literature and new media as they relate to global issues generally and Indian contexts specifically correcting the omission of analyses focused on the Global South in virtually all of the work that has been done on Anthropocene ecologies of food This unique volume employs an ecocritical framework that connects food with the land in physical and virtual communities and the book as a whole interrogates the meanings and implications of the Anthropocene itself Harvard Alumni Bulletin ,1927 440 Great Colleges for Top Students , The Cambridge bibliography of English literature. 3. 1800 - 1900 Frederick Wilse Bateson,1940 The Library of a Scholar ...
