Home Altars of Mexico Ramón A. Gutiérrez, Sal Scalora, Dana Salvo, William H. Beezley, 1997 For over a decade Dana Salvo has traveled throughout the central highlands and southern states of Mexico with artist Dawn Southworth and their young children Jahna and Simone They have visited the Purepechan Indians in Michoacan the Chamulan and Zinacantan tribes in Chiapas the Maya of the Yucatan peninsula and several other isolated groups in the countryside Welcomed into the homes of these rural peoples as few outsiders have been before Salvo was permitted the rare privilege of photographing the home environments of these families Central to each interior was the altarcito or home altar These dazzling large format color photographs depict the altars in all their glory and meticulous detail The essays provide the cultural and historic background to the practice of constructing domestic altars linking the ancient traditions with modern customs Home Altars of Mexico Ramón A. Gutiérrez, Dana Salvo, Salvatore Scalora, William H. Beezley, 1997 At the heart of many homes in Mexico is the altarcito or home altar private shrines which have profound personal and familial meaning and reflect the vitality of Mexico's spiritual practices The photographs in this collection depict the altars in detail Some are constructed for special holidays Christmas or the Day of the Dead while others commemorate family members using photographs mementoes and the deceased's favourite foods Home Altars of Mexico Dana Salvo, Living Shrines Marie Romero Cash, 1998 The tradition of home shrines first began evolving in the American Southwest during the Mexican colonial period when priests often travelled to homes to perform mass novenas baptisms and marriages a practice that continues today This colourful book features the personal altars of mostly Hispanic families living in the towns and villages of northern New Mexico Most are devoutly Catholic and although Roman Catholic dogma does not officially recognise home shrines the altar tradition for most Hispanos is a sign of being Catholic from the heart Their private altars allow for devotion in daily life a practice embraced by those of all beliefs who desire personal sacred places to meditate pray or reflect These portraits will serve as an inspiration for even the least devout among us desiring more spirituality in our lives Home Altars of Mexico, 1991

Mexico and the United States Lee Stacy, 2002-10 Examines the history and culture of Mexico and its relations with its neighbors to the north and east from the Spanish Conquest to the current presidency of Vicente Fox Dana Salvo Dana Salvo, Jane Livingston, 1990 Faith and Impiety in Revolutionary Mexico M. Butler, 2015-12-11 While Mexico's spiritual history after the 1910 Revolution is often essentialized as a church state power struggle this book reveals the complexity of interactions between revolution and religion Looking at anticlericalism indigenous cults and Catholic pilgrimage these authors reveal that the Revolution was a period of genuine religious change as well as social upheaval Ethnobotany of the Mountain Regions of Mexico Alejandro Casas, José Juan Blancas Vázquez, 2023-05-31 Research in recent years has increasingly shifted away from purely academic research and into applied aspects of the discipline including climate change research conservation and sustainable development It has by now widely been recognized that traditional knowledge is always in flux and adapting to a quickly changing environment Trends of globalization especially the globalization of plant markets have greatly influenced how plant resources are managed nowadays While ethnobotanical studies are now available from many regions of the world no comprehensive encyclopedic series focusing on the worlds mountain regions is available in the market Scholars in plant sciences worldwide will be interested in this website and its dynamic content The field and thus the market of ethnobotany and ethnopharmacology has grown considerably in recent years Student interest is on the rise attendance at professional conferences has grown steadily and the number of professionals calling themselves ethnobotanists has increased significantly the various societies Society for Economic Botany International Society of Ethnopharmacology Society of Ethnobiology International Society for Ethnobiology and many regional and national societies in the field currently have thousands of members Growth has been most robust in BRIC countries The objective of this new MRW on Ethnobotany of Mountain Regions is to take advantage of the increasing international interest and scholarship in the field of mountain research We anticipate including the best and latest research on a full range of descriptive methodological theoretical and applied research on the most important plants for each region Each contribution will be scientifically rigorous and contribute to the overall field of study
