Homeless Children Problems And Needs:

Homeless Children Panos Vostanis, Stuart Cumella, 1999-01-01 An increasing number of families are becoming homeless often as a result of domestic violence which leaves women and their school age children without homes This multidisciplinary volume is the first to look at the variety of problems encountered by this group and to propose strategies for managing those problems The contributors to this book provide evidence that homeless children often have more acute problems and needs than other children as a result of the insecurity of their situation they may experience physical health problems and developmental delay They are also at high risk of emotional and behavioural difficulties such as sleep disturbance eating problems aggression over activity anxiety depression and self harm At the same time due to their unstable situation they are less able to access support from the health education and social services Homeless Children defines the specific problems and needs of homeless children and draws up practical guidelines for staff and agencies on recognising and dealing with those problems It then looks at policy and service development for homeless families in education health and social care and concludes that conventional methods of provision have to be adapted to meet the specific needs of this vulnerable group

The Impact of Homelessness on Children Linda Sullivan, 2023-07-28 First published in 1997 Presents the views of nine children ages seven to eleven on homelessness and how it impacts their lives All nine children resided in shelters reported violent and disruptive events in their past and did not consider themselves homeless citing the shelter as their home The education for homeless children and youth program learning to succeed. , Educating Homeless Children James H. Stronge, Cheri Tenhouse, 1990 This publication summarizes issues relating to the education of homeless children and youth and reviews programs that are effective in the delivery of educational services to this population The report is comprised of five sections The first section Introduction surveys factors contributing to homelessness and indicates the special needs of young people who are homeless The second section Problems in Educating Homeless Children and Youth examines the following situations 1 legal barriers including residency requirements and guardianship requirements 2 financial constraints including family related financial problems and school related financial problems 3 institutional impediments including lack of records placement in inappropriate programs lack of coordination and educational performance problems and 4 social and psychological concerns including stress social acceptance and self esteem The third section Federal Legislation for the Homeless describes provisions of the Stewart B McKinney Homeless Assistance Act for homeless education The fourth section Programs that Work describes transitional programs in Tacoma Washington Salt Lake City Utah and San Diego California and mainstreamed programs in Venice California and New York City The fifth section Breaking the Cycle of Homelessness restates the need for more innovative educational programs along with economic domestic and other changes A list of 19 references is appended AF Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services Richard Williams, Michael Kerfoot, 2005-01-20 This volume synthesizes material and evidence on how best to plan and deliver child and adolescent
