Holt Sociology: The Study of Human Relationships: Student Edition 2008 Holt Rinehart and Winston, 2008

Sociology, 2005 Cultural Competence in America's Schools Bruce Anthony Jones, Edwin J. Nichols, 2013-03-01

Cultural Competence in America's Schools Leadership Engagement and Understanding focuses on explicating the impact of culture and issues of race and ethnicity on student learning teacher and leadership efficacy and educational policy making in our nation's public school system The authors agree with Levin 2012 who pointed out that the challenge of dealing effectively with racial and ethnic diversity in education in traditionally homogeneous societies is a global problem One indicator of this point is revealed in a U S study that was commissioned by the National Comprehensive Center for Teacher Quality which reported on the serious consequences for student achievement and teacher effectiveness in the face of the gap between teacher training and the realities of the classroom when it comes to teaching diverse populations and students with special needs Public Agenda 2008 p 2 Holt Sociology, 2003 The Oxford Textbook on Criminology Stephen Case, Steve Case, David Manlow, Philip Johnson, Kate Williams, Roger Smith, 2021 The Oxford Textbook on Criminology has been developed by a team of experts to equip you with the knowledge confidence skills and enthusiasm you need to achieve your full potential as a criminologist Back cover Holt Sociology W. LaVerne Thomas, 2008 Economic Psychology Erich Kirchler, Erik Hoelzl, 2017-11-23 Economic Psychology is the only up to date English language textbook that provides a comprehensive overview of theoretical topics in economic psychology and their relevance in applied fields Written by two leading psychologists the book looks at how people make decisions on the use of scarce resources in particular money from a psychological perspective Starting with decision making and lay theories as basic building blocks of economic behaviour the authors go on to explore three major markets where economic behaviour occurs as an interaction between individuals and companies or institutions consumer markets labour markets and financial markets before considering the challenges of collective cooperation and economic prosperity Featuring numerous applied examples throughout each chapter also includes an overview a summary figures key terms student questions and suggestions for further reading This introduction is an essential resource for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate courses on economic psychology behavioural economics and social psychology Creating Campus Cultures Samuel D. Museus, Uma M. Jayakumar, 2012-03-12 Many colleges and universities have not engaged in the critical self examination of their campuses necessary for effectively serving racially diverse student populations This timely edited collection provides insights into how campus cultures can and do shape the experiences and outcomes of their increasingly diverse college student populations By cultivating values beliefs and assumptions that focus on including validating and creating equitable outcomes among diverse undergraduate students an institution can foster their success While attention to campus climate is critical for gauging the nature of an institution's culture and how students are experiencing the campus environment changes in climate alone will not lead to holistic and deep rooted institutional transformation Moving beyond previous explorations of campus racial climates Creating Campus Cultures addresses the considerable institutionally embedded obstacles practitioners face as they attempt to transform entrenched institutional cultures to meet the needs of diverse student bodies A broad range of chapters include voices of students new research practical experiences and application of frameworks that are conducive to success This book will help student affairs and higher education administrators navigate this increasingly difficult terrain by providing practical advice on how to foster success among racial minority students and enact long term holistic change at any institution Front-Line Workers in the Global Service Economy Giovanna Fullin, 2021-06-17 Walking around the commercial streets of New York San Francisco Milan London or Paris and looking at the succession of multinational chain stores windows you can easily forget what country you are in However if you hear the small talk among the employees you hear very different stories In New York a 30 year old woman is worried because she does not know if she will work enough hours to make a living the following week whereas in Milan a mother of the same age knows she will work 20 hours a week but is concerned about whether her contract will be renewed at the end of the following month Following three years of fieldwork which included 100 in depth interviews with front line retail workers and unionists in New York City and Milan Front Line Workers in the Global Service Economy investigates both the lived experiences of salespersons in the fast fashion industry a retail sector made of large chains of stores selling fashion garments at low prices and the possibilities of collective action and structured forms of resistance to these global trends In the face of economic globalization and vigorous managerial efforts to minimize labor costs and to standardize the retail experience mass fashion workers stories tell us how strong the pressure toward work devaluation in low skilled service sectors can be and how devastating its effects are on the workers themselves
