Literature offers students and scholars studying children's literature education and youth librarianship an incisive and expansive collection of essays that discuss key debates within children's literature criticism. The thirty-four works included demonstrate a diverse array of perspectives from around the world, introduce emerging scholars to the field of children's literature criticism, and meaningfully contribute to the scholarly conversation. The essays selected by the editors present a view of children's literature that encompasses poetry, fiction, folklore, nonfiction, dramatic stage, and screen performances, picturebooks, and interactive and digital media. They range from historical overviews to the moment, critical theory about children's books from across the globe. A Companion to Children's Literature explores some of the earliest works in children's literature, key developments in the genre from the 20th century, and the latest trends and texts in children's information books, postmodern fairytales, theatre plays, and more. This collection also discusses methods for reading children's literature from social justice critiques of popular stories to Black critical theory in the context of children's literary analysis.

The Book That Made Me Judith Ridge, 2017-03-14 Just as authors create books, books create authors, and these essays by thirty-one writers for young people offer a fascinating glimpse at the books that inspired them the most. What if you could look inside your favorite authors' heads and see the book that led them to become who they are today? What was the book that made them fall in love or made them understand something for the first time? What was the book that made them feel challenged in ways they never knew they could be emotionally, intellectually, or politically? What book made them readers or made them writers or made them laugh, think, or cry? Join thirty-one top children's and young adult authors as they explore the books, stories, and experiences that changed them as readers for good. Some of the contributors include Ambelin Kwaymullina, Mal Peet, Shaun Tan, Markus Zusak, Randa Abdel Fattah, Alison Croggon, Ursula Dubosarsky, Simon French, Jaclyn Moriarty.

God, Me and the Enemy (Journey to Freedom Book #2) Peter Horrobin, 2020-02-18 Spiritual warfare: the battle in the unseen realm affects believers more than we realize. The enemy works relentlessly to undermine our faith and discourage us from advancing. Ellet Ministries founder Peter Horrobin teaches principles that have helped believers all over the world walk in the freedom they long for. And it begins with knowing all three players in this contest of wills: God, me, and the enemy. In this essential book, Horrobin lays a foundation for victorious spiritual warfare through an exploration of God, mankind, and the unseen realm. He equips the saints for battle, helping us accomplish mighty works for the kingdom of God.
