Your Eyes I See My Words Pope Francis, 2020-10-27 The homilies and speeches of Archbishop Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio from 2009 through his election as Pope Francis in 2013 These writings provide an intimate glimpse into the theological philosophical scientific and cultural educational currents that forged the steady loving and nurturing leadership style with which Jorge Mario Bergoglio guided the Church in Buenos Aires Argentina That style has now done the same for the Church from Rome a Church rocked by financial and moral scandals and a world shaken by the worst global pandemic in a century These writings were kneaded a word he uses when talking about the work of molding the souls and character of youth and seminarians in the relationships he formed in his bus rides to work and in his intense contact with all segments of the population Because of that careful and prayerful process of kneading they have found their full development in Bergoglio's writing as Pope Francis especially in Evangelii gaudium November 2013 Gaudete et exultate On the call to sanctity March 2018 and his encyclical Laudato si May 2015 In this final volume of Bergoglio's homilies and papers we meet European theologians and thinkers such as Hans Urs von Balthasar Henri de Lubac Bergoglio's friend the Uruguayan philosopher Maritain the literary figure Miguel Angel Asturias and Enrique Santos Discipolo a singer and composer of tangos that decry corruption In a prophetic conclusion the last homily of this volume is an outline of the roadmap Pope Francis has followed

Coffeeville Georgia in the days preceding television computer games and cell phones She finds abundant entertainment in the activities of the townsfolk Some of these activities she witnesses firsthand but most she learns about as oral history in stories told by others especially by her insightful grandmother Momann She also receives valuable lessons in living from being near her favorite aunt Augusta who holds court in her popular antique store felicitously situated in the center of Coffeeville if not the universe Downtown on the Square Although she relishes the telling and retelling of these tales of local legend Georgia Sue longs to grow up and move away to some place where something interesting is always happening so she can write stories about that The town and its characters are fictional but the stories are loosely based on or derived from events known or believed to have occurred Fifty MORE Homilies from the Deacon's Desk Deacon Rick Wagner, 2024-11-12
