Name: _____

BEHIND THE DOORS

The children crept through the house, trying carefully to keep their footsteps silent. They made their way to the spare bedroom and looked around. Glimmers of moonlight shone into the room, slightly illuminating the old furniture that lay within. They moved towards the ancient wardrobe, unsure about what they would find inside, but feeling strangely drawn towards it. Their hands were shaking and their hearts were racing. Both children took a deep breath in and quickly opened the doors. With a loud screech the doors swung open, revealing a bright light within. They peered in cautiously and saw a mysterious and strange world hidden in the back of the wardrobe. The trembling children took a hesitant step towards the strange new world, eager to discover what lay within!

1. Why do you think the children were trying to be quiet?

How did you make this inference?

2. Do you think the story took place during the day or the night?

How did you make this inference?

3. How do you think the children felt before opening the doors?

How did you make this inference?

Text-Dependent Questions, Grades 6-12 Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, Heather Anderson, Marisol Thayre, 2014-09-02 Fisher Frey s answer to close and critical reading No doubt since the cave paintings of prehistoric times humans have asked questions to make sense of the message So what could possibly be new about posing questions about text Plenty and with TDQ Doug Fisher and Nancy Frey reveal it all After one quick read you will have learned all the very best ways to use text dependent questions as scaffolds during close reading and the big understandings they can yield especially when executed the Fisher and Frey way But that s just for starters Fisher and Frey also include illustrative video actual texts and questions examples from across content areas and an online professional learning guide making the two volumes of TDQ a potent professional development tool across all of K 12 The genius of TDQ is the way Fisher and Frey break down the process into four cognitive pathways that help teachers organize the journey through a text and frame an extended discussion around it Step by step this approach ensures that in every close reading lesson students are guided to consider explicit and implied meanings and deeply analyze and appreciate various aspects of a text especially those that may be challenging or confusing Here s how the four inter related processes play out with every why and every how answered What does the text say general understandings and key details How does the text work vocabulary structure and author s craft What does the text mean logical inferences and intertextual connections What does the text inspire you to do write investigate present debate The cool thing These questions ignite students engagement and discussion because they strategically lead students to a place of understanding where explicit and implied meanings and interpretations can be debated Far from being overly literal or teacher led the questioning framework Fisher and Frey advance enhances the quality of student talk and idea generation All in all there s no better resource to cultivate students capacity for independent reading and incisive thinking Longtime collaborators and recipients of numerous teaching and leadership awards DOUGLAS FISHER and NANCY FREY are
